Second Sunday (12) American Christian Convention Day. Remit to J. F. Burnett, Dayton, Ohio.

Preparation period for Foreign Missions.

IN offering this number of The Christian Annual to the ministers and members of the Christian Church, the editor very sincerely regrets the absence of reports from the several Conferences, the names of which are herein given, but, in justice to himself, must say that he used every available means to secure such reports, but without success. Repeated requests, special delivery letters, notices in The Herald of Gospel Liberty, alike failed to secure reports, and hence the absence of reports from the Afro-Christian Convention, and the several Conferences belonging thereto, the Western Pennsylvania Conference, the West Virginia Conference, and the People's Colored Conference.

I feel sure that Conference Secretaries are not wholly to blame, in some cases at least the fault lies in the indifference of churches and Sunday-schools in selecting clerks and secretaries. All too often churches, and other organizations, do not consider competency in selecting officers, but, wishing to compliment, or "hold" some one, they overlook the greater importance of competency in service. One very efficient Conference Secretary wrote me as follows:

> I am sending you, under separate cover, reports and statistics from our Conference, for The Annual, but do not have a thing that I can report on either Sunday-school or Christian Endeavor, as I cannot get either for this year.

Another Conference Secretary, noted for promptness and accuracy, wrote me as follows:

> I have done the best I could with the reports I have received from the churches. I am sending you one of our report blanks, to show you what I have to make a report with. As meager as the blank is, it is hard to get the Secretary of the country churches to keep a record so as to make a full report.

A few of our Conference reports are quite full. Some of them do not give addresses of Sunday-school officers, the most important item of such reports. Conference Secretaries are requested to compare their reports with others, and wherein they have lacked this year, are requested to do better next. When we compare our imperfect reports with the more perfect reports of other denominations, it is enough to make us hang our heads.

During the year the following-named Conferences united under one name: The North Carolina Christian Conference, Western North Carolina, North Carolina, and Virginia and Eastern North Carolina—The Northern Kansas and Nebraska. This decreases the number of Conferences, but does not decrease either the ministerial, or church membership.

The historical sketches of our schools and colleges are commended to all our readers, as they in a brief, but correct, way, set forth the origin of our educational institutions, and the deep and continued interest the church has had in the educational life of her people.

The reports of the several departments, made to the various boards of the church, when in joint session, is of great value, especially to ministers, who desire information concerning the general work of the church in the fields of her activities.

The statements of receipts, in the several tables, are reliable, and should be carefully studied. It is important to know what has been done, by whom, and how. Such knowledge is more than information, it adds greatly to one's efficiency in similar lines of service.

I wish to express my appreciation of the valuable service rendered by the Conference Secretaries, the Secretaries of the various departments of the Convention, the Manager of The Christian Publishing Association, the proof-reader, and others, who have helped to make The Christian Annual for 1920; and to especially mention the Convention stenographer, Miss Florence V. Powers, and the foreman of the Publishing Department, Pressley E. Zartmann, for their patient, painstaking effort in the work which fell to their respective lots.

THE FORWARD MOVEMENT AND THE HERALD OF GOSPEL LIBERTY

The success of the Forward Movement of the Christian Church is the success of the church. Its failure is the failure of the church, and such a one as cannot be overcome.

The future usefulness and destiny of the church depends upon what it does the present quadrennium.

The five points of the Forward Movement are vital.

DEVOTIONS. The prayer life of the church must be deepened and broadened. It must worship God. Members must attend the stated services of the church not to see and be seen, nor to be entertained, but to worship God "in spirit and in truth." They must pray with a deep conviction, that God hears and answers prayers and that prayer is a God-given method of seeking and securing His co-operation and blessings. Devotions then is a vitality essential to the life and power of the church. But greater devotion will not come by simply announcing that we must have it. A mere call to our people, that we must pray more, by Superintendent Denison, will not, of itself, accomplish much. To get results, the hearts of pastors must be touched. The pastor is the key that will unlock the treasure house of devotions, of prayer life, and real worship of the heavenly Father. The key must fit the treasure lock. How can the key be fitted? By filing, here a little, and there a little. A wax impression must be taken, the pastor's heart must be softened by the love of God.

A little rasping here and there by the hand of the Great Master, must be done, the rough places must be smoothed, the key must be polished, so that it has the proper contact with the lock spring, so that it responds easily and readily.

How can the pastor-key be fashioned like the Master-key, to unlock the great treasure house of God? Great addresses by devoted and able leaders who have thought deeply and prayed earnestly would help the pastor, but only a few are privileged to hear these men. How then must the pastor be reached? How can he be reached? The answer is, he can be reached through the columns of The Herald of Gospel Liberty, our church paper. Here are found the best thought and most careful presentation by our ablest and most devoted men on the subject of devotions, prayer life, vital piety, etc. It is absolutely essential to our success in the Forward Movement program that all our active ministers take and study The Herald of Gospel Liberty.

The editorials and the special writers will both educate and inspire our pastors. The impression will thus be made and the polishing go on from week to week. The pastor-key will begin to work smoothly, the treasure-lock will respond, because his heart has been touched by the oil and wine of the Holy Spirit. But the heart of his congregation must be touched, the key that unlocked the pastor's heart must be used to unlock the hearts of the members of the church. The treasure house of God can only be reached by unlocking the treasure house of men's souls, the Master-key of God's love must touch the mainspring of their lives.

O. W. WHITELOCK

The pastor may make his appeals, he may be able to show them the wax impression, but the rough corners of worldliness, jealousy, indifference, self-sufficiency, selfishness, and many others must be ground down and polished. The pastor's power and touch must be supplemented by the fine touch of the editor and specialist, through the weekly ministration of The Herald of Gospel Liberty.

Ten thousand homes must be reached by this associated pastor, week by week the pumice stone of God's messengers must be applied to polish the key which shall unlock the treasury of the average church member, for where his treasure is, there you will find his heart also. The golden key of God, molded and polished by His love, is the only one that can unlock the treasure house of the soul, but this key can be brought into efficient use by the pastor and his assistant, The Herald of Gospel Liberty. No thief can make a skeleton key, no thief can "break through and steal" so long as God's key is in the soul-lock of a man's heart. The oil of the spirit brought in the golden censer weekly, drop by drop will wear away the rough corners. Oh, that The Herald of Gospel Liberty might come to every Christian home! Silently but effectively the polishing would go on. The prayer life magnified, spirituality broadened, the devotions deepened, the combination is found, the treasure house of God is opened and Christians are made rich in grace because God's treasure of "great price" has been found by them.

When the great treasury of the Lord is open and Christians have decorated themselves with rubies and diamonds of God's compassion and tenderness, then it is that they begin to hunt for the "lost coin," and the hidden treasures.

DEVOTIONS that are deep and broad prepare the Christian to reach out beyond self, they are ready to launch out into the deep and become "fishers of men," ready to "let down their net" that it may be filled. They desire to carry the glad tidings of "peace and good will" to the hearts of those who have wandered far from the "strait and narrow way" and have plunged into the whirlpool of sin and destruction.

These have become evangels, their hearts have grown tender and large, there are men who are lost, they realize they are their brother's keeper and that the Master would have us carry His message and be witnesses for Him both in "Jerusalem and Samaria."

But man cannot live alone, neither can he live his best unless he is in communication with his fellow-men.

Each one of us needs encouragement and we are encouraged mostly by the success of others who think as we think, who pray as we pray, and who love as we love. The news from the field of what others are doing, of their successes and triumphs helps us, the glad tidings from the "field" can come to us, as Christians only through the printed page, through the oldest, and best for us, religious newspaper in the world.

The Herald of Gospel Liberty brings to us the news each week and we are made to rejoice because kindred spirits who have agonized as we have agonized have been made to rejoice in victory and souls have been born anew into the Kingdom of God.

In these days of unrest, there is nothing that will calm the mind and steady the life as the spirit of Christ's message when He taught the "golden rule" of "do unto others as ye would have them do unto you;" the fulness of this rule can come to our minds and hearts only as we come to be filled with the Christ spirit and love for sinful men.

As we look out upon the seething and turbulent masses of the world, we cry out in our agony of despair, the "fields are indeed white already to harvest" but the laborers are few and we pray the Lord of the harvest to send more laborers.

With the spirit of evangelism moving us, we feel our own weakness and inability, and pray that we might have workmen of whom we need not be ashamed, to build the Temple of God in these tabernacles of clay; men who could rightly divide the word, giving to saint and sinner their due portion. There should be more servants to warn the people of the "wrath to come" and who could carry the message of Christ's love to wandering men, who are chasing phantoms and following every "wind of doctrine."

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION, in the home, in the school, in the church, and in our colleges is the crying need of the hour. "We must educate or we perish" is true of church as well as state. Fifty young men each year coming out at the top of our colleges and seminary are too few, but this many we must have or we cripple along and live at a "poor dying rate." There is no evangel of religious education like the church paper. Its messages from our colleges and from our educators have the true spirit of vision, of optimism, and yet of absolute need. The call is urgent, the needs are great, the people must hear, the messenger must be sent, who will send him? The messenger is The Herald of Gospel Liberty, and those who will send it are the pastors of our churches.

It is to the pastors we make our appeals. You have the ear of your congregations, they will hear you, we must have The Herald of Gospel Liberty in ten thousand of our homes, if our people are to hear and heed the bugle call, of "Forward March," along all our lines. Will our pastors hear our plea? Will they rally to the call of the Christian Church? Will they carry forward the banner of our church upon which is inscribed the creed of Christ, under which all Christians can march and pray the Christ prayer that we all may be one even as Christ and the Father are one? Will our pastors do it? They are the key men.

The church paper, assistant to our pastors in ten thousand of our homes, then missions and all benevolences are safe, the victory will be won, our goal will be reached, and the Christian Church will have come into its own. It will be in its proper place in christendom, it will have gone "upon the mountain top" of Christian unity and fellowship and join the multitude of the heavenly host saying, "Glory to God in the highest" and "Peace on earth, good will to men," which will be heard "round the world" wherever the gospel story is told.

Pastors and laymen join hand in hand, stand shoulder to shoulder, our hearts beating as one, and the Christian Church will go forward in the greatest movement of the Christians.

DEPARTMENT OF SUNDAY-SCHOOLS

Hermon Eldredge, Secretary

SUNDAY-SCHOOL BOARD

Hermon Eldredge, Erie, Pa.—Chairman and Young People's Division.
Mrs. Fred E. Bullock, Suffolk, Va.,—Secretary and Children's Division.
Rev. H. G. Rowe, Danville, Illinois—Adult Superintendent.
F. R. Beach, Irvington, N. J.—Vice-Chairman and Near East Relief.
Rev. H. H. Short, Bluffton, Ind., R. D. 6—Teacher Training Superintendent.

Annual Meeting

The Board met in annual session in the Sunday-school rooms of the First Christian Church, Dayton, Ohio, on Tuesday, October 21st, at two p. m. Members present: Mr. Hermon Eldredge, Secretary of the Sunday-school Department of The American Christian Convention, Erie, Pa.; Mr. F. R. Beach, Irvington, N. J.; Rev. H. H. Short, Bluffton, Ind.; Mrs. Fred Bullock, Suffolk, Va.; Rev. H. G. Rowe, Danville, Illinois.

Officers

The Board organized by electing Mr. Hermon Eldredge, Chairman, Mr. F. R. Beach, Vice-Chairman, and Mrs. Bullock, Secretary.

Statistics

Hermon Eldredge reported on his efforts to secure statistics from the Sunday-schools. He stated he had been compelled to try to get these from the local schools. Up to date reports have been received from 508 schools, with a total enrolment of 52,795. Fifteen conferences without a single school reporting, and only one or two from several others.

It was the sense of the Board that every effort must be made to get statistics, in order that we may know exactly how, and where, we stand.

Near East Relief

F. R. Beach reported attending a meeting of the Near East Relief Committee, held at Wallace Lodge, N. Y., at which meeting the delegates, representing all denominations, formulated plans for the relief of the Armenians and Syrians. The need is stated to be urgent beyond relief, there being 250,000 orphans, to say nothing of all other classes. This committee will send out any needed literature to make the drive a success, such literature including a play by Mrs. Drenchfield, graphically depicting conditions, programs for schools which cannot give the play, new maps, posters, simple exercises, remittance blanks, detail order blanks, etc. The call is for $2,000,000 same as last year. Last year but $979,000 was raised, of which we contributed $1,572.00. Owing to high cost of living it costs $180.00 to keep a child a year. This includes food, clothing, lodging, education, and transportation to where child can be cared for when necessary.

Moved and carried that we enter into this Near East Relief work, in co-operation with other denominations.

Moved and carried that this drive for funds be made February 22d. Address, No. 1 Madison Ave. (Near East Relief). F. R. Beach was appointed our official representative.

Publicity

It was the sense of the Board that the work of this Board must be given more publicity if it was to do the work it desired to accomplish. To this end it was determined to use the Officers and Teachers Journal, The Herald of Gospel Liberty, and the Sunday-school papers.

World's Sunday-school Convention

Hermon Eldredge reported that, feeling the need that this Board should be represented at the Tokyo Convention, he had paid a registration fee of $25.00, said fee to be returned in case we definitely decide six months in advance, not to send a delegate. The Convention meets October 20, 1920. The cost of the trip, which would include a survey of the mission field, would be from $800.00 to $1,000.00. Moved and carried that the action of the chairman be endorsed, and that report be made to the Joint Boards that it was felt to be desirable that the Sunday-school Board be represented in the World's Convention, at Tokyo.

International Lesson Committee

Our present representative on the International Lesson Committee, Hermon Eldredge, has been re-elected. This Committee, composed of thirty-nine members, representing twenty-three denominations, eight members of the International Sunday-school Association, and eight members of the Sunday-school Committee, is the author of the Uniform Lessons. We feel that we are ably represented there by Mr. Eldredge. This is a most important work, which can by no means be allowed to drop behind.

Sunday-school Budget for 1920

Moved and carried that we make our appeal for Missions and for the general budget $10,000.00 from the schools for 1920, this amount to include $5,000 for Missions and the offering for Near East Relief and the activities of the Board and that apportionment be made on the average basis of twenty cents per member of the schools.

Moved and carried that the suggestion as made by Mr. Eldredge be incorporated in our appeal for funds and sent out to the churches, i. e., "This apportionment may be met in any one of three ways: One way is the annual offering; a better way is a once-a-month offering; the best way is the every-Sunday offering, in which each scholar gives for 'ourselves' and for 'others.'"

Summer Schools

Moved and carried that we thoroughly approve of the Virginia Beach Chautauqua and School of Methods, and we recommend that its plans be reproduced as far as possible at Winona Lake and Craigville, and that other such schools of methods be started in strategic places where opportunity offers, or the field opens for such work.

HERMON ELDREDGE

Moved and carried that every conference be asked to reserve ample time on its program for a presentation of the work of the Sunday-school, and that the chairman be asked to prepare a suggestive program to assist the conference program committees.

Adult Bible Classes

Rev. H. G. Rowe reported on Organized Bible Class that the work can be made successful, but it needs the worker behind it; that a big enough program must be presented to capture the minds of men, and that, in his opinion, it could be best linked up with the Forward Movement if any "drive" is to be successful. He suggested the addition of a page or two to the adult quarterlies devoted to the interests of the work.

Teacher Training

Rev. A. B. Kendall, D. D., formerly Teacher-Training Superintendent, was called into consultation. He stated that after consultation with Netum Rathbun, Manager Christian Publishing Association, it was felt the Pilgrim Press book was the best to recommend to our people. The second year's books are now out. The three years' course and 120 lessons are the standard for a diploma.

Sunday-school Literature

Mrs. F. E. Bullock reported on literature, giving an outline of the lessons found in the Graded work we are now using; also exhibiting a copy of The Junior Herald, picked at random, which contained one Primary, two Junior, and two Intermediate articles, one unclassified. It was decided that it would be impossible, for various reasons, to ask for a change in the Graded Lessons used just at this time.

Forward Movement Program

Moved and carried that we endorse the Forward Movement Program as it relates to the Sunday-school, accepting it as a working basis for this Board, with the monthly emphasis as determined by the church. Said emphasis being as follows: January and February, Evangelism; March and April, Foreign Missions; May and June, Home Missions; July, August, September, and October, Religious Education; November and December, Devotion and Stewardship. The International Standard Sunday-school to be pushed all the year around.

Interdenominational Representation

Moved and carried that we continue our representation on the International Lesson Committee and the Sunday-school Council, and that we provide the necessary expenses for our representatives attending these meetings.

Teacher-Training Superintendent

Moved and carried that Rev. H. H. Short, of Bluffton, Indiana, be appointed to have supervision of the Teacher-Training work, with power to act in the selection of books, in conference with the Manager of The Christian Publishing Association.

Moved and carried that we ask the conferences and State conventions Sunday-school secretaries to meet with this Board one day during our session of October, 1920.

Literature and Publicity

Moved and carried that we authorize the printing of the necessary literature for the promoting of publicity of the work of this Board, and that Mr. Beach be appointed a committee of one with power to act in connection with other members of the Board in the various departments.

Standards and Surplus Materials

Moved and carried that Rev. H. G. Rowe be appointed to investigate method of securing Standard Certificates, with power to act.

Moved and carried that Rev. H. G. Rowe be appointed as a committee of one on conservation and distribution of surplus Sunday-school material.

Mission Study

Mrs. F. E. Bullock was given authority to confer with the Woman's Board of Missions in regard to correlating the Mission Study work of the Sunday-school and the Missionary societies.

DEPARTMENT OF HOME MISSIONS

HOME MISSION BOARD

Rev. Omer S. Thomas, D. D., Dayton, Ohio.
Rev. Carlyle Summerbell, D. D., Conneaut, Ohio.
M. S. Campbell, Collison, Illinois.
Rev. C. B. Kershner, Mooreland, Indiana.
Rev. J. W. Harrell, D. D., Burlington, N. C.
Mrs. Athella Howsare, Dayton, Ohio.

We are facing a very serious condition in the Christian Church in that there are so many churches which are at the present time pastorless. This forms one of the greatest home mission problems which we have. To meet that condition the Home Mission Department is endeavoring to secure field workers wherever possible with the thought that lay leaders may be secured in the churches where there are no pastors and thus maintain services and interest in the churches until pastors may be secured.

Several of the conferences have already secured field secretaries and a meeting of these secretaries is planned for soon that we may formulate a more definite program to work to.

Rev. H. M. Composite, our composite home mission pastor, has done some very strenuous work during the past year. He has preached one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one sermons, attended three thousand five hundred and twenty-seven services, made seven thousand four hundred and ninety-three calls. He has had two hundred and eighty-seven conversions and received three hundred and nineteen members into church. We have paid him for this service about ten thousand dollars. I believe that he has made a very good record for our home mission churches, one that we need to feel proud of having supported.

OMER S. THOMAS

With the work of the survey of the home mission fields by the Interchurch World Movement the prospect for enlarged interest in home missions is very fine. One of the things which is being brought out in that survey is the lack of equipment in our country churches. We are hoping that the overlapping question may be so adjusted among the denominations that it will settle the question of the scarcity of preachers in all denominations.

We have placed the budget for home missions, which we submitted to the Interchurch World Movement, at nearly $400,000.00 for the five-year campaign. That is to include church extension and all.

We are hoping that the Forward Movement may have a great influence in establishing the work of the home base for all of our mission work so that the churches may come to realize the place they really hold in the maintenance of the work. The way in which the churches are responding to that appeal is very encouraging. We ought to build one new church this year and start another or two next year, churches which will be strong enough to appeal to the membership as a challenge for their best support.

Home Missions is never able to report all that is done for that cause in the whole denomination along the line of finance, as many of the conferences and conventions do so much home mission work in which the money does not pass through the hands of this treasurer. Many of the conferences have done more in that way this year than ever before, and some excellent work, too. One of the conferences raised its conference apportionment from twelve and one-half cents per member to fifty cents. Dr. Atkinson writes me that at the time of the meeting of their Board they had $25,000.00 in the treasury of the Mission Board of the Southern Christian Convention. Thus there is much Home Mission work being done in the denomination which we are not able to report.

Our receipts from general sources this year were $16,815.09, which is $2,736.54 more than they were last year. The total net receipts for home missions from all sources were $21,201.38, or an increase of $3,746.17 over the net receipts of last year. While this is small in comparison to the ability of the church to give, we are not discouraged with the development of our mission work along financial lines. Figures do not tell the whole story by any means. Men are teaching the opportunities of stewardship and planting the seed for the future in a way that is sure to bring a fine harvest. Tithing is being taught and practiced more than ever was dreamed could be in our church.

I wish to acknowledge the fine support that the Woman's Board for Home Missions has given to the work of the Home Mission Department. They have aided in the circulation of The Christian Missionary, in planting the leaven of mission study classes in the churches, in raising a large share of the money that we have used in the work, and in promoting the general cause of missions.

It will be seen that our income has increased about $9,000 over that of last year, and that the expenses of the work have also increased very considerably. Prices have continued to rise, especially in Japan, where it has become almost impossible to secure land for equipment purposes, and there is a possibility that we may have to erect our buildings on rented land, a very general custom in Japan. The cost of exchange in Japan also has continued unfavorable to American money.

Miss Martha R. Stacy, already under appointment to Japan at the beginning of the year, finally sailed for her destination in September and is now very busily engaged in the study of the vernacular, preparing herself for active missionary work. At present her address is No. 26 Kasumi Cho, Azabu, Tokyo, Japan, where she will be glad to receive letters from those interested in her life and work.

Dr. and Mrs. A. D. Woodworth, who reached America on furlough in December, 1918, sailed for Australia in September, 1919, to visit their only daughter, who resides with her family at Surrey Hills. After a few weeks there they will continue their journey to Japan and take up their usual work sometime in January, 1920.

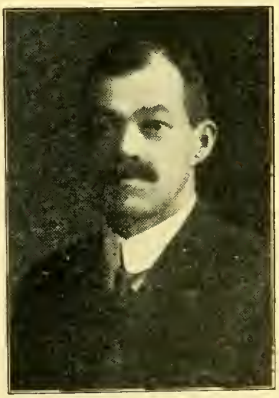
W. P. MINTON

The McCords have continued in America during the year, Mr. McCord taking the work of Acting Foreign Mission Secretary to fill in the time between the going of Dr. M. T. Morrill and the coming of Foreign Mission Secretary elect, Rev. W. P. Minton.

Owing to the impoverished health of the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Garman, Mrs. Garman and their three children returned to America in December in order that she might secure proper medical treatment and climatic conditions for the son.

The Rev. Mr. Matsuno, pastor of the Azabu Christian Church in Tokyo, has been absent during about half of the year, making a journey through America and parts of Europe. This will mean very much both to Mr. Matsuno himself, and to our entire Japan Mission.

Miss Ren Hamaguchi, one of our oldest and most efficient Bible women, died in August, after a somewhat lingering illness. Our church in Japan thus met with a very deep and grevious loss. She was one of God's faithful servants, and will not soon be forgotten either by our people in Japan or by the friends in America who had come to know her through correspondence.



E. K. MCCORD

Building operations for our Japan Mission have been very difficult because of the exceeding high prices of land, building materials, and labor. Practically little has been actually accomplished in this line, but funds have been sent to Japan for the erection of a chapel at Kannari in the Sendai station; for assisting in the building of a small chapel at Narugo, also within the Sendai station; and some funds have been sent for the building operations in connection with the work at Dogenzaka, Tokyo.

The Mission Board of The Southern Christian Convention has assumed the task of erecting a new mission home in Tokyo for the use of the missionary family connected with the Dogenzaka work. A part of the money for this purpose has already been sent to Japan. The same board has also assumed the task of providing a home for Miss Williams, in Ponce, P. R., and the money for that project is already on hand. They have also provided funds for the repair of damages done to our Porto Rico property by the earthquake last spring, and are with considerable rapidity assuming large shares in all our foreign work.

No new missionaries have been sent to Porto Rico during the year. One Porto Rican pastor has found it necessary to discontinue his work owing to health conditions, but a ministerial student has been added to our roll there who is temporarily filling the vacated place. Two missionary families are under appointment, one for Japan and one for Porto Rico. Negotiations as to their passage are now going on and they will probably sail in February, 1920.

The number of baptisms in our Japanese churches during the year was 102. Statistics from our Porto Rican mission have not yet arrived. The budget for our mission in Japan for the year 1920 is $20,675, and that for our Porto Rico work is $9,540.

Below is appended a list of definite items which our people might undertake to supply. These are items included within the two budgets, and the Foreign Mission Office will be glad to correspond with any church, individual, or conference that might wish to undertake any one of them as a definite task.

DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR

Rev. A. B. Kendall, D. D., Secretary

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR BOARD

Rev. A. B. Kendall, D. D., Washington, D. C., Chairman.
Rev. J. F. Morgan, Norfolk, Va.
Rev. R. G. English, Amesbury, Mass.
Rev. F. E. Rockwell, Albany, Missouri.
Rev. A. E. Kemp, D. D., Troy, Ohio.

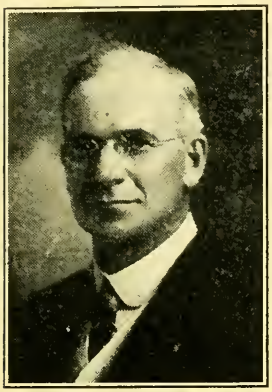
A little over seven months ago the delightful, but serious, task of directing and supervising the young people of our church along the lines of Christian Endeavor was placed upon your humble servant. The months have been exceedingly busy ones along many lines and many of the plans purposed have as yet failed of materialization, but we live in hopes.

The great war which depleted so many of our societies by taking from them our splendid young men is practically over and our young men are back again, and we trust have taken their old places in the society and working with increased earnestness and consecration.

The mission of Christian Endeavor has not been fulfilled. It, on the contrary, has enlarged and its horizon of usefulness has widened with the new opportunities of the times in which we find ourselves placed.

We are living in a time of upheaval and great unrest with signs portentious of even more serious things ahead. The problems which press us now and which will continue to press for solution can never be solved, except by the practical application of the principles of Christianity as laid down by Jesus Christ.

Never was there greater need for the training of the young in the real meaning and the practical application of those great principles than NOW; and the church which is neglecting the use of this God-given Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor for the Americanization and the Christianization of the coming generations is failing to do its share in protecting and promoting the great principles for which this Republic stands, as well as failing in the propagation of the great truths and blessed teachings of the "kingdom of heaven."



A. B. KENDALL

I have not at present any statistical report to present, showing whether we have increased or diminished in numbers of societies or members. You may be able to arrange one from the conference reports which you will find in the pages of this Annual. I hope that we have increased very much.

But I am sure of this one thing, and it is not an original idea, we shall never make the gain we should and do the work we should until we have a Christian Endeavor Secretary who can give his full time to this great work.

Your Christian Endeavor Board has adopted certain goals for the coming year, which we trust every Christian Endeavor Society, and every church, and every Christian Endeavorer will help us attain. Every goal is important and harmonizes with some part of the great Forward Movement of our beloved Christian Church. Read these goals carefully and then with determined hearts let us shout the slogan given us by the beloved founder of Christian Endeavor, Doctor Francis E. Clerk, "Come on! Let's GO."

For program and goals see report to joint boards page 56.

EDUCATIONAL BOARD

Rev. W. G. Sargent, D. D., Providence, R. I., Chairman.
Rev. H. A. Smith, D. D., Warren, Indiana, Clerk.
Rev. R. C. Helfenstein, D. D., Urbana, Illinois.
Rev. W. T. Walters, D. D., Winchester, Virginia.
Rev. John MacCalman, D. D., Lakemont, N. Y.

The report of the Educational Board printed elsewhere in this volume will make necessary only a brief statement, mostly concerned with the statistical phases of our educational work.

Reports from the institutions associated with the denomination show the number of teachers employed by all our colleges and schools last year was one hundred and twenty, of whom ninety-two gave full time to the work. Of the others many of them devoted most of their time to the work.

There were in attendance at all our schools one thousand three hundred and forty-six students, of whom four hundred and thirty-six were in the normal department and three hundred in the academic department. Sixty-nine were preparing for the ministry. This computation does not include the attendance at Franklinton, which at the time of writing the Secretary had not been able to secure from the school. At the latter institution many of the students come in late and any attempt to give the number of students early in the season would of necessity be misleading.

W. G. SARGENT

The total value of the different school plants amounts to one million, one hundred and thirty thousand, nine hundred and eighty-nine dollars. Doubtless these figures are conservative, as present prices range much higher than those submitted even a short time ago.

Our various institutions have expended during the past year in salaries ninety-one thousand, eight hundred and seventy dollars. Other expenditures have amounted to one hundred and twenty-three thousand, six hundred and twenty dollars. This does not include new buildings that have been erected, but has to do simply with current expenses.

All of our colleges provide instruction in the Bible, one at least, making it compulsory during the four years of the college course. Most of the schools provide courses in Christian Ethics and the history of Christianity. Only two report courses in Christian Missions.

Elon College reports having added to their curriculum a Department of Religious Education and instituted student government. A campaign to increase her endowment resulted in a total addition of three hundred and seventy-five thousand dollars.

Franklinton is emphasizing the industrial phase of their work.

Union Christian College has completed the erection of the Hatten Memorial Building and entered upon a campaign to increase their endowment by one hundred thousand dollars.

Palmer has opened with good prospects after enforced closure during a part of the war period. Added equipment has been installed in the Domestic Science Department and Science Laboratories.

Defiance reports campaign under way to increase her endowment three hundred thousand dollars.

More money has been raised for education the past year than in any one year of the history of the church. This is as it should be. But needs are pressing hard and only the utmost generosity of our people will suffice to meet the pressing demands. Not only have current expenses increased from fifty to seventy-five per cent., but larger equipment and heavier endowments must be forthcoming if our schools are to measure up to the demands of our time.

Elon stands urgently in need of a new science hall, a departmental and a new library building. A chapel, too, should be provided this growing school.

Jireh must have, if the school is to be continued, new dormitories and other buildings of a departmental nature.

Palmer Institute-Starkey Seminary requires more dormitories and a new gymnasium.

Palmer College and Union Christian College need greatly increased endowments.

Defiance must have additional endowment to increase salaries and add to her faculty, as well as liquidate the indebtedness on some of the buildings recently erected.

Franklinton needs an agricultural department, a heating plant, a larger faculty, and new buildings for dormitory purposes.

All our schools should have funds to devote to the enlargement of their libraries.

THE NEW ENGLAND CHRISTIANS AND EARLY EDUCATIONAL ENTERPRISES

By Rev. Alvah H. Morrill

I. The New England Christian Academy.

In 1837, a school was commenced in the second parish, Beverly, Mass., and incorporated as the "New England Christian Academy." This school was conducted on the manual labor system, and during its continuance, averaged about sixty pupils. Its preceptor, with the exception of a single term, was Mr. Joseph Henry Siewers. The Academy remained in operation less than two years, when, for reasons of pecuniary nature, it was closed.

II. Durham Academy.

In 1839 the "New Hampshire Christian Baptist Conference (I quote from the History of the Town of Durham, N. H.) decided to establish an Academy where the youth, both male and female, may be taught the various branches of education free from the leaven of sectarianism."

They further stated that "their wish and intention is to establish an Academy of a strictly literary character, without any reference to the profession the students may be disposed to choose afterward."

Elder William Demeritt, then pastor of the Christian church of Durham, and other citizens of Durham, becoming interested in having such a school in their town, secured the location of the Academy, and its incorporation in 1840, the school being known as Durham Academy. Elder Demeritt became the chief financial and business manager. He paid a large share of the expense of the school, leaving his farm and conducting the boarding house for the students. A two-story building, of brick and stone, was erected. Beside furnishing accommodation for the school, the basement was used as the vestry of the Christian church, whose building (of brick) was close to the Academy building, having been built in 1824.

The school was opened August 27, 1841, and seems to have received a good patronage. The tuition was $4.00 per term of eleven weeks, there being four terms a year. Board was from $1.25 to $1.50 per week, including everything except wood. Quite a number of these early students became people of much prominence.

The death of Elder Demeritt, in 1842, was a severe loss to the Academy, and despite efforts to raise an endowment, the receipts from tuition and other sources being insufficient to meet the current expenses, the school gradually declined, and ceased its work after only a few years of activity. "But while Durham Academy flourished, it ranked high in efficiency and was a credit to the town."

"In one term sixty-eight males and forty-four females were enrolled as pupils."

In 1864, while Rev. John S. Smith was pastor of the Christian Church of Durham, and at his suggestion, the building was sold at auction, the stone and brick being taken to Portsmouth, N. H., and the seats used for the Christian Church near the Academy. The bell that had called the students to their duties was stored in a shop, and some fifteen years later could not be found.

It may be well to state in concluding this narrative of the Durham Academy, that for some years past the citizens of that town have had the great educational opportunities afforded by the State Agricultural College, located there in 1893, (because of the bequest of one of its citizens amounting to $800,000). and which has an attendance of some 800 or more students.

ANTIOCH COLLEGE

(Historical Sketch)

The American Christian Convention—then The General Christian Convention—met in Marion, N. Y., October 2, 1850. The main work for which the Convention assembled was to consider the question of education, and to found a college of high rank and suitable equipment, which would not only represent the Christians in educational matters, but which would also represent the principles of the people founding it. The Convention was composed of representative men, from all sections of the United States, and from the territory in Canada, occupied by the Christians. The temper and determination of the Convention was set forth in the following resolution, offered by Dr. J. E. Frees, of Philadelphia:

Resolved, That our responsibility to the community, and the advancement of our interests as a denomination, demands the establishment of a college.

The resolution was debated at length, and unanimously and enthusiastically adopted.

Immediately upon the adoption of the resolution, the Convention raised a committee of thirty-four, on Ways and Means, with a sub-committee of thirteen, for executive purposes. This Provisional Committee was empowered to locate said college in some "accessible, healthy place, offering sufficient inducements." It was resolved "that we agree on the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, as the standard of our zeal and our efforts in raising the means for establishing the contemplated college." It was also resolved "that the sum stated by the committee shall be raised by the disposal of scholarships at one hundred dollars each, which scholarship shall be negotiable. Whoever then subscribes and pays one hundred dollars will own a scholarship, giving such persons the right to keep one student in college continually, free from educational charges, and whosoever subscribes and pays fifty dollars, will have a like privilege half the time." It was provided that no one should be allowed to vote who did not own one full share of stock, and no one was allowed to own more than ten shares. It was also resolved "that at least two-thirds of the Board of Trustees, and a majority of the Board of Instruction shall at all times belong to the Christian Church." And it was resolved "that the college shall afford equal privileges to students of both sexes." And last of all it was resolved "that our proposed college shall be known by the name of Antioch College." Yellow Springs, Ohio, offered the "sufficient inducement" and the college was located there, though at first it was expected to locate the college in New York. Judge Miller donated twenty acres of land, and pledged the village for $30,000.00 cash. The meeting of the Provisional Committee, that located the college, was held in the Knob Prairie Christian Church, now the Enon Christian Church, in Clark County, Ohio.

Horace Mann, of Massachusetts, was the first president, serving from 1859 to 1862. Rev. Austin Craig served from 1862 to 1865 (Rev. J. B. Weston acting.)

Mr. Mann was born in Franklin, Mass., May 4, 1796. After he completed his course in Brown University, he studied law. He was a member of the State legislature in 1827, and in 1836 was president of the State Senate, and for eleven years Secretary of the State Board of Education. In 1848, he was elected to the United States Congress, in place of ex-president John Q. Adams. On September 15, 1852, he was nominated for Governor of Massachusetts, by the Free Soil Party, and on the same day was offered the presidency of Antioch College, situated in what was then a real frontier community. Mrs. Mann, in "Life of Horace Mann," says: "Several years after, when driving one day over one of those broad wastes, when occasionally a solitary log-house showed that human interests were beginning to be linked with nature, his companion remarked, 'I should not like to be a pioneer.' 'Are we not pioneers?' he answered, not bitterly, but sadly; for he had already been made to feel that the borders of civilization are, in their social aspects, but a short way removed from barbarism." He accepted the presidency of the college, and at the close of his term in Congress, entered upon his duties.

The financial conditions of the college were in a hopeless tangle, and soon became more complicated, and seriously embarrassing. The notes held by Judge Miller were uncollectable, and a financial crash was inevitably soon to come, and yet students flocked to the college. The school years of 1855 and 1856 show a total enrolment, in all departments, of three hundred and sixty-three students, and the years 1856 and 1857, five hundred and thirty-nine, and three hundred and twenty-one, in 1857 and 1858. But for all that, the crisis came, and the buildings had to be sold to satisfy the claims of creditors. The sale was made to Francis A. Palmer, of New York, on a bid of $40,200.00, and the college passed to the control of a close corporation of twenty trustees, as against the original stock-holders' corporation. The money that paid for the building, and provided $100,000.00 endowment, came quite largely from Unitarian sources, and the control of the college eventually passed into their hands. The new arrangement at the first provided that the Christians should have twelve members on the Board of Trustees, and the Unitarians eight, but this arrangement did not long continue in force, and the numbers were reversed. From 1877 to 1899, the Christians were connected with the college through The Christian Educational Society, which elected the president, and members of the faculty. But with the close of Rev. D. A. Long's presidency, in 1899, the college passed entirely out of the control of the Christians, except as such control might be influenced by the trustees from the Christian Church.

Presidents Mann, Craig, Weston, Wait, Long, and Bell were all members of the Christian Church, and at this writing, November, 1919, the following-named trustees of the college are members of the Christian Church: Rev. William M. Dawson, Yellow Springs, Ohio; Rev. ElCharles Arthur DeVore, Indianapolis, Ind.; J. Perry Miller, Yellow Springs, Ohio. Doctor Dawson is acting president and Mr. Miller is secretary.

HISTORICAL SKETCH

By Rev. M. Summerbell

This institution, which is familiarly known as Starkey Seminary, now in its eightieth year, is the oldest school of the Christians, having been founded in 1839. It occupies a beautiful site in central New York, overhanging Seneca Lake, and holds properties in campus and farm of some one hundred and twelve acres in extent. It is a boarding and day school, and prepares for the best colleges and for business life.

From its foundation, Starkey Seminary has been conducted "on free and liberal principles." Religious ideas were to be inculcated in theory and practice, and yet they were not to be presented in any dogmatic, formal, or offensive way. Its managing officers have always been selected from the Christian denomination, but its Boards of Instruction have been open to teachers of any denomination who were sincerely devout and well qualified for the subjects they were to teach.

In consequence of the training received in Starkey Seminary many of its young people date their Christian experience from its influence, and others who entered its life as Christians have had their religious convictions supported and strengthened.

The formal opening of the Seminary was in November of 1842, when Forman Hall was dedicated. The first principal was Rev. Charles Murgridge, who later was succeeded by such distinguished educators as Edmund Chadwick, O. F. Ingoldsby, B. F. McHenry, Alvah H. Morrill, and G. R. Hammond. The proportion of its graduating classes that have gone to college has been remarkable. Frequently it has happened that every student graduated in a certain year has entered college, university, or a professional school. Alongside of this record may be set the other that repeatedly every member of the senior class has gone forth as an active Christian. The rolls of the Starkey alumni show an extended list of ministers of the gospel, missionaries, professors, physicians, lawyers, legislators, and merchants, whose standing in their respective communities proves the value of the Starkey ideal and of the training which has given it living expression.

About twenty years ago the Seminary received a fresh impulse by the coming of the late Francis Asbury Palmer, of New York, and several of his intimate friends. Mr. Palmer was a leading banker of New York City and a man who was intensely interested in Christian education. In early life he was in touch with the Christian Church in New York City, and for several years he was treasurer of The American Christian Convention and a member of its Executive Board. While acting in this latter capacity he became interested in the Seminary and consented to serve on its Board of Trustees. His interest materialized in his clearing off some debts that had been embarrassing the management and in his bringing into the school as its president Dr. Martyn Summerbell, who at the time had been for some ten years pastor of the college church of Bates College in Maine. He promised Dr. Summerbell to stand by the school, which pledge he fulfilled by furnishing funds for new grounds and buildings, and ultimately by providing a substantial endowment of nearly one hundred thousand dollars for the maintenance of the school.

The new building, Palmer Hall, so named after the wife of the donor, was opened in the fall of 1900, and is a structure worthy of a worthy cause. It houses the entire school, and contains the library, museum, assembly room, president's office, and the classrooms on the main floor, with some fifty dormitory rooms in the upper floors for the students and teachers.

The recent history of the school has been one of progress and prosperity. Its courses of study enable it to prepare its pupils for the best colleges, many of which accept its certificates in lieu of examinations. It also makes a practice of employing graduates of our own colleges as teachers. For several years it has had two or more teachers from Defiance College and one or more from Elon College. It has sent several students to Defiance College and now has one in Defiance and three in Elon.

The whole atmosphere of the school is that of a well ordered family, in which the traits of self-control, good manners, and a sincerely spiritual frame have their normal growth.

Despite all the hindrances growing out of war conditions the registration of students keeps to the limit of capacity, and now for three summers from twenty to thirty applicants have been refused entrance from lack of dormitory space. This summer every room for students was engaged by the middle of August, with two students in every room and one room with four. At the present any applicant will have to wait for a possible vacancy before being accepted.

The principal want of the school now is for a new dormitory and an addition to the endowment for the additional expense which such a building would involve.

Union Christian College is under the direct control of a board of fifteen trustees representing Christian conferences in Ohio, Indiana, and Illinois, and one representative from the College Alumni Association. Two-thirds of members of the board must be members of the Christian Church.

Union Christian College Day (for Indiana and Illinois churches), second Sunday of July.

Interesting and Suggestive Facts About Union Christian College

It was founded in 1860

It is a co-educational institution.

It has a beautiful campus of twenty-seven acres.

It has dormitory accommodations for sixty students.

A new gymnasium and chapel was erected this year.

It is delightfully situated on high bluffs overlooking the Wabash River and the Illinois prairies.

Two hundred and twenty dollars will pay for board, room, and tuition in college or preparatory department for one year.

Union Christian College graduates are to be found in every honorable profession and business.

The men and women who have attended the college have honored the institution by their successful efforts in their chosen work. An unusually large per cent. has been conspicuously successful, and they have reflected unusual honor upon their Alma Mater.

Two members of the Alumni Association were members of the last Congress.

Nineteen of the many successful teachers are in colleges or universities as presidents or professors.

Several of the ministers and others of the Alumni Association have achieved unusual success as authors and lecturers.

The College Offers Instruction as Follows:

College of Liberal Arts and Science—Leading to baccalaureate degrees.
Religious Education—For prospective ministers and Christian workers. (Biblical, but non-sectarian.)
Music—Piano, Singing, Band and Orchestra Instruments, Harmony, History of Music.
Expression—Public Speaking, Dramatic Reading, and Interpretation.
Home Economics—Courses in Domestic Science and Household Arts.
Commercial—Shorthand, Typewriting, Bookkeeping, and other related subjects.

The location is delightful. The equipment is adequate. The instruction is thorough. The costs are moderate. The ideals are Christian. The environment is wholesome.

HISTORICAL SKETCH

By Rev. C. B. Hershey

On November 4, 1858, a convention of delegates from various conferences of the Christian Church met in the Christian chapel near Peru, Indiana, "to consider the interests of the Christian Church in the West and the propriety of erecting an institution of learning in the State of Indiana." The convention decided to "recommend the establishment of an institution of learning in the State of Indiana, to be under the control of the Christian conferences in the State and vicinity." A committee was appointed to decide upon a location and to take all necessary steps to carry out the recommendation of the convention. The committee decided upon Merom, Sullivan County, Indiana, as the location, and proceeded to erect a suitable building for college purposes. The school was opened for students September 9, 1860.

The purpose of the college is to extend to young men and women, on equal terms, the benefits of a liberal education. Its curricula are arranged so as to provide preparation for advanced professional training and service, and to furnish that broad culture which should be the possession of every intelligent man and woman. The methods of instruction are those that educational experience has approved.

Rev. Nicholas Summerbell, D. D., was chosen first president. He served during a period of eight years, a part of which time he was granted a leave of absence to serve in the army as chaplain. Dr. Summerbell was an author and a lecturer of some note. His writings were largely in the field of church history. His son, Joseph J. Summerbell, was the first graduate from this institution, receiving the degree B. A. in 1864.

Dr. Summerbell was succeeded by Rev. Thomas Holmes, D. D. Dr. Holmes gave his time largely to theological and philosophical questions. He was a man of scholarly attainments and was strict disciplinarian. Men and women who were students under Dr. Holmes frequently speak of his administration as the days of rigid but wholesome discipline.

Rev. Thomas Corwin Smith, D. D., Denver, Colorado, and Elisha Mudge, D. D., served as presidents in the late seventies and eighties.

In 1887, Rev. L. J. Aldrich, D. D., was elected president. He served in that capacity for eighteen years. His administration was prosperous, and during the years of his presidency, his rugged honesty and sane optimism entered largely into the lives of many young men and women.

During later years the following men have served as presidents of the college: C. J. Jones, D. D., 1905-1907; G. R. Hammond, Ph. D., acting president, 1907-1908; O. B. Whitaker, D. D., 1908-1911; D. A. Long, M. A., LL. D., 1911-1915. The present incumbent, C. B. Hershey, D. D., began his work in 1915.

The college has always sought to provide a moral and religious atmosphere that would be conducive to wholesome living, and to the formation of right ideals for life. In addition to a strict regard for the character of the classroom work, the personal habits and life of the individual student have always been jealously guarded.

The college has always sought to be sound educationally. It held a large place in the educational life of Indiana during the latter part of the nineteenth century.

The contribution of the college to public life has been, in many instances, of a conspicuous character. W. C Pearce, '87, is probably "the most popular Sunday-school man in the world," and is now leading the way for a definite and comprehensive program of religious education. Two of its graduates were members of the last Congress. Union Christian graduates are to be found in every honorable profession and business. The men and women who have attended the college have honored the institution by their successful efforts in their chosen work. An unusually large per cent. has been conspicuously successful, and are now making their full contribution to civic righteousness and community betterment.

HISTORICAL SKETCH

By F. G. Coffin

Palmer College, now of Albany, Missouri, was founded at Legrand, Iowa, in 1865, under the name of the Lagrand Christian Institute. The agitation which resulted in its establishment originated with Rev. J. P. Watson, D. D., that seer of the Christian Church, whose genius and devotion were responsible for so many great movements in the denomination. His plan was aided by Rev. D. M. Lines, who became the first principal of the institution.

The first building, consisting of seven rooms and a chapel, was erected in 1867, at a cost of ten thousand dollars cash and much uncomputed labor and material by donation. There was also an endowment of thirteen thousand dollars.

In 1868, Prof. Lines was succeeded in the principalship of the school by Rev. O. A. Roberts. Financial difficulties caused the omission of sessions from 1870 to 1873 after which it was re-opened with Rev. F. R. Wade as principal.

He was soon followed in the position by Prof. Chas. Ellison, who was succeeded by Rev. J. Q. Evans.

In 1878 an addition, forty by one hundred feet, was built to the original plant. The corner stone of the new structure was laid by Dr. N. Summerbell. During the erection of the building school was necessarily suspended. Many delays due to financial and other causes were experienced. The situation was further aggravated by a cyclone which ripped off the roof and did much other damage to the building. The brethren were confronted with an indebtedness of almost three thousand dollars and the building which was responsible for it was still unusable. Before their battered spirits could revive, the property was sold at sheriff's sale. Rev. W. C. Smith then entered the field to raise money for the redemption of the property. This, by a great effort, he was able to do.

After these experiences it was not until 1889 that the school was able to re-open, this time under the presidency of Dr. D. M. Helfenstein. The name of the institution was changed to Lagrand Christian College and re-chartered under that title. The storm-wrecked portion of the building was razed, a new addition built, the old building remodeled, a heating plant installed, and everything about the plant put in good order.

In 1897 Hon. Francis A. Palmer gave thirty thousand dollars toward endowing the school, on condition that the Iowa State Christian Conference which held the title to the property should raise twenty thousand dollars for the same purpose. The proposition was accepted and the conditions met. In appreciation of this gift the name of the college was in the same year changed to Palmer College.

Dr. Helfenstein concluded his official relationship in 1899, after ten years of successful service for the school. He was succeeded by Rev. Carlyle Summerbell, who continued in the position for seven years, or until 1906. Following his administration, Prof. Harry Haas, Dean, directed the affairs of the school for one year, then Rev. Ercy C. Kerr accepted the presidency, remaining for a period of four years.

Rev. E. A. Watkins came to the presidency in 1911. The following year it appeared to the Board of Trustees that a larger and less competitive territory would increase the usefulness of the school. Accordingly, the Legrand plant was sold, the school consolidated with Kansas Christian College and located at Albany, Missouri. In the new location it acquired an original school plant, now known as the Administration Building, valued at one hundred thousand dollars. In 1916 Kansas Hall, a ladies' dormitory and gymnasium, was erected at a cost of fifty thousand dollars. This building has been declared by unbiased school men to be one of the best of its kind in the State.

The school operated in a flourishing condition until depleted of many of its professors and students by the world war. Because of these drains it was thought best to discontinue the literary departments for the period of the war. Plans were made to continue the College of Fine Arts and Commercial work. Shortly after this the government draft took the heads of these departments, thus forcing a closing which occurred January 1, 1918. Under these conditions President Watkins retired from the work.

At the close of the war, steps were taken toward the opening of the college. A financial agent, in the person of Rev. F. E. Rockwell, was placed in the field to raise an added endowment of two hundred fifty thousand dollars. At the time this matter goes to publication the campaign is progressing with every assurance of success. On August 1, 1919, Dr. F. G. Coffin, of Albany, N. Y., assumed the presidency.

Many and loyal have been the friends of Palmer College. Among these in the early days were Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Coate to whose sacrifices, with lesser ones of many others, may be attributed the existence of the school originally. In 1889 Rev. J. W. Piper, of Legrand, became president of the Board of Trustees, which position he has held continuously since that time. He has been the moving spirit in all college interests during his administration. To Mr. A. S. Lynn belongs the credit of assuring the fifty thousand dollars of added endowment through the Palmer gift. Many others have made sacrifices and achievements worthy of note, but limited space forbids mention here. They worked not for personal credit, nor would they regret its omission.

From the beginning and through changing administrations the school management has considered its chief mission the production of Christian leaders. Among Palmer's graduates are those who have been called to the highest places of church, state, school, and business. They have filled them with efficiency and grace. The institution has no reason for apology because of its product. This has always been of superlative quality and has compared more than favorably in the most severe competitions. The school has supplied many efficient workers to our church field. The loss to the work of the Christian Church in the West without Palmer College can only be conjectured.

The college is at present standardized in harmony with the requirements of the University of Missouri and has been officially accredited in all particulars by that institution. Courses are offered in Preparatory and Junior Collegiate departments, Religious Education, Home Economics, Music, Expression, Art and Commercial Science.

The faculty for this year is composed of fourteen members and is the strongest ever assembled in the history of the school. Most of them are university trained, some of them bearing unique university distinctions.

Notwithstanding the universal increase in prices, the fees in college and dormitory remain as heretofore. Board is being furnished at four dollars per week. The total cost of a course in the Collegiate, Academic, Education, or Commercial Departments should not exceed three hundred dollars per year.

Albany is a beautiful county-seat city, easy of access by three lines of railroad. Its residents are cultured and refined. No bad influences threaten the welfare of the students. The college and community unite to make the student surroundings safe, pleasant, and profitable. The college buildings are ideally located on a high point overlooking the city. They are commodious, well adapted, and modern in every particular. The dormitories are electrically lighted, well heated and ventilated, equipped with baths, gymnasium, swimming pool, and all modern conveniences. The laboratories, studios, library, and classrooms are completely equipped for the work to be done in them.

Palmer College means to serve the Christian Church, especially in the West. Its management conceives this as the purpose of its existence. The school is seeking out and preparing young men and women for life service for Christ. One in every fifteen of its student body is preparing for such life work. The atmosphere is spiritual and at all times conducive to the highest ideals.

DEFIANCE COLLEGE

By Rev. Geo. C. Enders, Dean

It took the institution now known as Defiance College more than half a century to find itself and to get started. It may be said to have been born on March 23, 1850, when the legislature of Ohio passed a special act incorporating the Defiance Female Seminary and making a grant of 1,280 acres of canal lands for its establishment. This land was sold and by means of the proceeds a lot on the site of the present campus was secured and in 1884 the large brick building now known as Defiance Hall was erected and equipped. During the following fifteen years various attempts were made to conduct a school in this building, but with only indifferent success. Finally Dr. John R. Latchaw, who had become president of the institution in 1896, conceived the idea of interesting the Christian Church in the founding of a real college to take the place of the so-called Defiance Female Seminary. To this end, in 1901, he prevailed upon Rev. P. W. McReynolds, then the pastor of the Christian Church at Marshall, Michigan, to come to Defiance and become dean of the faculty. With the same object in view he also secured as dean of women Miss Adelia Wilson, then a professor in the Christian college at Legrand, Iowa. In 1902, Dr. Latchaw resigned to accept the presidency of another institution and the outlook for the future of the Defiance Female Seminary, to say the least, was not encouraging.

However, at the earnest solicitation of the Board of Trustees, Dean McReynolds accepted the responsibility as President, and with the enthusiasm and self-sacrifice that characterized all his work for the college gave himself heart and soul to the task. In September, 1902, school opened with thirty-three students and four teachers. Plans were set in motion for raising an endowment fund of $30,000. By spring of the following year $10,000 of this amount had been subscribed by the citizens of Defiance and the remaining $20,000 had been pledged under the auspices of the Ohio State Christian Association, and on July 13, 1903, an amended charter was secured from the State transferring the property of the Defiance Female Seminary to the Ohio State Christian Association and changing the name to the Defiance College.

With this reorganization the real history of Defiance College begins and from this point its story is a twofold record; on the one hand it is the story of struggle, of noble self-sacrifice, and of heroic devotion to the cause of Christian education; on the other hand it is the story of continued achievement, of constant and uniform growth, in natural resources in student enrolment, and in educational prestige.

Space permits the giving of little more than a catalogue of the principal events which characterizetd this growth. Trowbridge Hall, largely the gift of Lyman Trowbridge, of Defiance, was erected in 1905, burned in 1906, but enlarged and rebuilt in the same year. Weston Hall, named in honor of Dr. John B. Weston, and designed to be the home of the Christian Biblical Institute, which had been brought from New York in 1907, was erected in 1908, furnishing for both the institute and the college an auditorium and certain classrooms. The hearty co-operation of these two institutions added greatly to the influence of each. The Sutphen Memorial Home for the President, the gift of the heirs of the late Judge Sutphen, was built in 1910. Before this building was completed work was begun on a new dormitory for men. This large building known as Sisson Hall, was completed in 1911. It is a fitting memorial of the late Anna B. Sission, and is largely the gift of her sister, Mrs. Ardella Engle-Blade. In 1913, at the expense of $10,000, almost the whole of which was contributed by members of the faculty, an addition was built to Weston Hall and a fine pipe organ installed. In 1916, the central heating plant was constructed and two years later there was completed the magnificent new Tenzer Science Hall, made possible by the generosity of Trustee and Mrs. H. B. Tenzer, of Defiance.

The growth in endowment, which now amounts to $430,000, has been equally encouraging. It is primarily the result of many small gifts. There have been, however, several large gifts among the donors, of which the following may be mentioned: Dr. Weston, Mrs. Engle-Blade, the McReynolds family, the Sutphen family, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Tenzer, Mr. C. C. Kuhn, and Mrs. Martha McGrew.

But the material growth, rapid and encouraging as it has been, has not kept pace with growth along other lines. The needs occasioned by the constantly increasing opportunities for enlarged service have developed far more rapidly than the means with which to meet them, so that the problem of financing the institution is becoming constantly more difficult.

Although it is only seventeen years since Defiance College was re-organized, in that time 293 persons have been graduated from courses leading to degrees, or from full courses in music and art.

In conclusion, it should be noted that not the least important factor in the success of Defiance College has been its unique organization, initiated and for many years directed and seemingly dominated by that genius of organization, President McReynolds, but so heartily supported by the faculty that when, by tragic accident, the college was suddenly deprived of its leader, certain changes in the organization were made necessary, as for instance the election of a new president in the person of Dean A. G. Caris, Litt. D., the work went right on with no sign of arrested progress, but with every indication of greatly enlarged usefulness.

THE CHRISTIAN DIVINITY SCHOOL

By Rev. Geo. C. Enders, Dean

The initial measures for the establishment of the Christian Biblical Institute were taken by The American Christian Convention in its quadrennial session at Marshall, Michigan, in October, 1866. This action was the result of a growing conviction of the necessity of special educational training for the ministry. At this session a Board of Trustees was elected and charged with the duty of the establishment and control of an institution for that purpose.

In April, 1868, a charter for "The Christian Biblical Institute" was obtained from the State of New York, measures were taken for the raising of funds, and Rev. Austin Craig, D. D., was elected President. In October of the following year the institute was opened for students in Eddytown (now Lakemont), New York, where it continued its educational work until 1872, when it was removed to Stanfordville, New York. Near this village of charming surroundings, in the extreme eastern part of the State, and far removed from schools of higher learning, a farm, with buildings sufficient for temporary accommodations for the school, had been purchased. Within the next two years, through the munificence of Hon. David Clark, two substantial additional buildings were erected.

In this place the Christian Biblical Institute for nine years was under the management of its scholarly, Christian President, Austin Craig, whose sweetness of spirit, thoroughness of preparation and brilliancy of intellect, drew students from various States and from Canada. Dr. Craig's method of instruction was by lecture. This made special preparation unnecessary and made it possible for students to enter and leave at any time, carrying with them such good as they had obtained. Dr. Craig died suddenly in 1881, and when his successor, the beloved Dr. J. B. Weston, had been inducted into office, a three years' course was instituted, involving class work for which preparation was needed. The need of provision for such preparatory work now became apparent. And as the requirements both of the curriculum and of preparation for it were advanced the evidence of the lack became stronger and stronger. To give academic training in purely high school and college subjects was not the purpose for which the institute was founded, and consequently the need of proximity to some literary institution where this work could be done without cost to the institute, was keenly felt.

In 1907, through the efficient management of Dr. P. W. McReynolds, President of Defiance College, the trustees of that institution, backed by the citizens of Defiance, offered to the Christian Biblical Institute, on condition of its removal to Defiance, a deed in fee simple of land from their campus sufficient for a building, and $10,000 towards the expense of erecting it. The proposition was accepted and the institute was removed to Defiance. The two institutions, located upon the same campus, worked in perfect harmony and mutual co-operation, Dr. McReynolds acting as President, and Dr. Weston acting as Chancellor of both the institute and the college. In 1912, Dr. G. C. Enders was elected Dean of the institute, and in 1916 the Christian Biblical Institute was consolidated with Defiance College and the name was changed to the Christian Divinity School.

FRANKLINTON CHRISTIAN COLLEGE

Franklinton, N. C.

BOARD OF CONTROL

Rev. Omer S. Thomas, D. D., President and Treasurer, Dayton, Ohio.
Rev. J. O. Atkinson, D. D., Secretary, Elon College, N. C.
Mrs. Alice M. Burnett, Dayton, Ohio.
Rev. W. G. Sargent, D. D., Providence, R. I.
Rev. S. A. Howell, D. D., Newport News, Va.

As this article is written, the prospects for the present term are brighter than for the past three years. We have more applications than for two previous years together. We trust there will not come another epidemic that we may have a successful term.

The colored membership of the Christian Church is made up very largely of farmers. Many of these farmers are renters who have to pay exorbitant rent, and the children are compelled to remain home until the crop is harvested. This prevents many from entering on the opening day. The students body is never completed before January 1.

We are pushing the industrial work this year because we have come to believe after three years of study and experience that the students are in need of a good industrial education to fit them to meet the demands of the age. We do not mean to infer that we have discontinued our literary work—that is being raised every year gradually, but the industrial work is receiving special attention.

We believe that with proper co-operation on the part of all concerned Franklinton Christian College will do a greater work than it has ever done. Unless there is that co-operation Franklinton Christian College is bound to succumb, as we are surrounded by many like institutions which are supported by very much larger and stronger denominations. Shall we permit ourselves to go under, or shall we stand loyally behind this work?

The Faculty for the Present Term Is as Follows:

President; Biblical Instructor; Rev. Floyd Seeley Hendershot.
Secretary & Treasurer; Commercial Teacher; Music; Mrs. Hazel Mead Hendershot.
Manager of Farm; President W. H. Hendershot.
Mathematics; Latin; Mrs. Cora B. Long.
History; Music; Mrs. Burretta Lee Mangrum.
English; Mathematics; Miss Lea Alma A. Shoffner.
Home Economics; Mrs. Sallie J. Martin.
Teacher of Grades; Mrs. Essie Cooke Montague.
Matron; Mrs. Mary E. Cooke.

HISTORICAL SKETCH

By Rev. H. E. Long

Soon after the close of the war between the States the colored Christians, having been formerly members of the white Christian churches, were separated from the white churches and organized into the colored Christian church. Prominent among the white ministers who assisted in organizing the colored churches were: Rev. J. W. Wellons, Franklinton, North Carolina; Dr. D. A. Long, of Graham, North Carolina; Dr. W. B. Wellons, of Suffolk, Va., and Rev. H. O. Hayes.

In the year 1866 it was found that a sufficient number of churches had been organized to form a conference of colored brethren, and the Southern Christian Convention appointed a committee consisting of Rev. J. W. Wellons and others to organize the colored conference, which was done in the city of Raleigh, October, 1867. From that time the number of churches increased rapidly and when the colored conference met at Burchetts Chapel, Warren County, in 1872, the brethren had a vision.

S. L. Long, of Franklinton, a lay member (father of H. E. Long), introduced a resolution to establish a school at Franklinton, N. C., for the purpose of educating young men for the ministry. The next year he advocated the cause.

H. E. Long was appointed principal of the public school for colored children in the year 1878. The school was moved from the Presbyterian church to the Christian church (there was no public schoolhouse at that time) and the North Carolina and Virginia conferences appointed a school board to look after the matter of establishing a school for the Christian church. This board ordered H. E. Long to begin this school in combination with the public school November, 1878, under the title, Franklinton Christian Institute.

Rev. G. W. Dunn, of Raleigh, N. C., was then pastor of the Franklinton Christian Church and a frequent guest at the home of S. L. Long where they spent much time on the subject of educating the young men and young women of the church. While visiting in the home of Mr. W. H. Long and wife, prominent members of the Christian church, Rev. Dunn found a copy of the "Golden Censor," a paper published somewhere in the State of Maine. Rev. Dunn thought it a Christian paper, therefore he wrote the editor of the paper, who in turn published the letter. Rev. W. O. Cushing, a Christian minister, read the published letter and sent the clipping to the editor of The Herald of Gospel Liberty who published the same.

This letter awakened interest among many northern friends, among whom were Dr. Austin Craig, Rev. J. E. Brush, of New York State; Dr. and Mrs. John G. Wilson, of Philadelphia.

Dr. J. P. Watson, Secretary of Children's Mission, took the school at Franklinton under his supervision as a mission and secured the services of Rev. Geo. C. Young, of Carlisle, N. Y., to teach young colored men preparing for the gospel ministry. Dr. Young arrived in Franklinton, October, 1880.

Buildings.

Rev. J. P. Watson issued an appeal for $2,500 for the purpose of erecting a school building, and at the same time asked the colored Christians to raise sufficient funds to purchase a site for the school building and to build a house for the principal of the school.

During the year 1881 the colored people, with the aid of their white friends in their community, purchased a site for $300, and built the principal's home at a cost of $700. The amount requested by Dr. Watson was raised by the white friends of the North. The corner stone of the school building was laid, Dr. J. P. Barrett officiating, address by Dr. McManany of the white Baptist church, Franklinton. Two buildings were soon completed and the school was moved from the church and into the new school building January 1, 1882, under the name (by Rev. J. P. Watson) "Franklinton Theological and Literary Institute."

Gaylord Hall.

The third building, the girls' home, was the gift of Mrs. Emily G. Wilson, of Philadelphia, who sent the first $100 for the support of the school and paid $200 for an adjoining lot and $1,800 to build and furnish the house for girls. She also left $400 endowment for the school.

When The American Christian Convention met at New Bedford in 1886 the school was placed under the supervision of a Board of Control.

Administration.

Rev. Geo. C. Young, Carlisle, N. Y., 1880-1887, buildings erected; Rev. C. A. Beck, Philadelphia, 1888-1889; Rev. J. F. Ullery, Urbana, Ohio, 1890-1891, school incorporated under title "Franklinton Christian College;" Rev. N. Del McReynolds, Ohio, 1892-1898; Rev. Z. A. Poste, 1898-1903; Rev. H. E. Long, 1904-1912; Rev. Z. A. Poste, 1913-1914 (deceased); Rev. H. E. Long, 1914-1917; F. S. Hendershot, 1918-1919.

In 1906, Rev. H. E. Long, President of the school, and Rev. Jas. L. Foster, a member of the Board of Control, were appointed to purchase a new site for the school. They bought a parcel of land, 82½ acres, near the town of Franklinton, N. C., at a cost of $1,500, of which sum the colored people paid $500, the balance was paid by white friends through the efforts of Rev. John Blood, affectionately called the Guardian Angel of Franklinton. The Board of Control has constructed a large four-story concrete building costing about $50,000. The old school site and buildings were sold for $3,500, and the money used in helping to erect the new building.

The Woman's Home Mission Board of The American Christian Convention has done some special work for the college. That board has built a beautiful cottage—known as Bishop Cottage—a home for the president and for the use of the Board of Control.

KANSAS CHRISTIAN COLLEGE

By Rev. C. G. Nelson, M. A.

Along in the early eighties, the leaders of the various Christian conferences in Kansas, felt the need of a better educated ministry. Resolutions also show that they considered it advisable to educate their children under Christian influence. We find in many resolutions on education that our Christian colleges farther east were endorsed and young ministers urged to attend; but on account of the distance there was a feeling that a college in Kansas was needed.

At the third annual session of Kansas State Christian Conference, November 8, 1883, at Towanda, Kansas, a committee was appointed to raise funds for a Christian college to be established at Madison, Kansas. In the spring of 1884 the trustees of the Kansas State Conference were called to meet at Cottonwood Falls, Kansas. At this meeting several places were suggested and discussed as possible sites for the college. Through the influence of Rev. J. J. Hillman, Lincoln, Kansas, was chosen as the site. During the summer of 1884 students were solicited and the college organized in the fall, with Rev. Thomas Bartlett as its first president and Rev. George Tenny as instructor. The school during these first years was conducted in the Baptist church and Cummins building in Lincoln, Kansas. President Bartlett secured a ten-acre building site on the edge of Lincoln, then a prairie town without a railroad. The corner stone was laid July 23, 1885.

Rev. Thomas Bartlett was president for a term of eight years. He was followed by Rev. E. Cameron, who was president for a term of three years. The main efforts of these eleven years were the securing of funds for the running expense of the college and the erection of the building. Dr. O. B. Whitaker, Cameron's successor, served as president for a term of thirteen years. When President Whitaker took charge of the school it was heavily in debt, and some of the building was still unfinished. President Whitaker succeeded in clearing the college of indebtedness. Rev. George R. Stoner succeeded Whitaker as president, and served for a term of four years. President

Stoner conducted a very successful school but had no chances of making it grow, on account of financial burdens. For while the college had no debts, it did not have an endowment, and in that day, from 1906 to 1910, no college could be operated on the income from tuition. Rev. C. G. Nelson followed Stoner as president for a term of two years. President Nelson proposed to the Board of Trustees at their annual meeting in the spring of 1912, that since the college was now clear of indebtedness, and that with our present constituency we could not raise a sufficient endowment to make our college in Kansas an accredited institution; that we unite our forces in the movement that was then in progress to locate Palmer College, of Legrand, Iowa, at Albany, Missouri, and to unite our educational interests of Iowa, Missouri, Nebraska, and Kansas at that place. This was accomplished in the spring of 1913, with which action Kansas Christian College terminated its existence as such.

WEAUBLEAU CHRISTIAN COLLEGE

(Historical Sketch)

By Rev. O. B. Whitaker

I find the following in the preface to the catalogue of Weaubleau Christian College, 1902-1903, written by its founder and for a generation its president:

On the first day of January, 1868, at a church meeting held on Weaubleau prairie, it was voted, "That a house, 24x32, two stories high, be built, the lower story be used for a chapel, the upper for an academy, to be controlled by the Christian Church." The house was built 26x40 feet. The corner stone was laid in July, 1869. The school was begun with five students, October, 1871, out "on the lone prairie." The school was continued in "the Old Brick" for twenty years, when it was transferred to the new and more commodious brick building which stands on higher ground about four hundred yards northwest of the "Old Brick."

Thirty years have passed since the doors of this school have been thrown open to the youths of the country. A thrifty town has sprung up on the "wild prairie" around the "Old Brick." The "iron horse" with magic speed regularly comes and goes with its cargoes of human beings and merchandise.

Another geenration is coming rapidly to supercede the one that founded the school. Yet the school survives and prospers. About two thousand students have received instruction here. Twenty-three classes with an aggregate of eighty young men and women have graduated from this school. Weaubleau College has furnished superintendents and principals for the schools of St. Louis, Kansas City, Nebraska City, Omaha, Nevada, Rich Hill, Harrisonville, Lincoln, Ash Grove, Appleton City, Humansville, Osceola, Schell City, Deepwater, Stockton, La Monte, Houston, Cabool, Cole Camp, and many other towns and cities, besides college, academy, graded, and high school instructors. The various professions and business colleges have among their leading representatives students of Weaubleau Christian College.

To-day the author of the above modest lines sleeps in the church yard beside the beautiful Christian Church, which stands on the very spot where the "Old Brick" was built. Even to-day Weaubleau is known throughout the State and in many other sections only as the home of Weaubleau College, and Weaubleau College, wherever known stands to-day as a synonym for thoroughness and efficiency. The building of Weaubleau College on a bare prairie, near no railroad, near no town, and accompanied by no other building was the product of a soul inspired of God and a courage that knew no fear, and its long years of unbroken success under the administration of its founder can be ascribed to none other than the approval and constant support and sustenance of Him that knows not failure. Few, if any, have been more highly honored, more uniformly respected, and more sincerely loved by their great mass of students than was (and is) Dr. John Whitaker, the founder, and for more than a generation, the president of Weaubleau Christian College—or for better reason.

Others have served for short periods as president of the college; among them, Elder E. Barber, Rev. Joel Myers, Rev. Fred Cooper, and the writer of these lines.

The college is no more. The "new" building has been turned over to the town to be used (and is being used) as a high school building, but the splendid work done by that institution will never die.

Origin and History.

By W. A. Harper, President.

Elon College was charged March 11, 1889. It had been in process of birth for many years previous to that date and came as a fruition of the sincere desire of the membership of the Southern Christian Convention for a college to fit ministry and laity alike for effective service in the church.

Purpose.

The founders of Elon College had in mind to furnish young men and young women, on equal terms, with the most thorough instruction under positive moral and religious influences. The record of more than a quarter century has been ample justification of this purpose. The association of young men and young women in the classrooms and lecture halls has refined both and resulted in a type of scholarship above the average in present-day colleges. The lack of boisterousness and rowdyism, the refinement and gentleness of manners, directly attributable to equal education, has developed, under the strict moral standard prevailing here, a spirit that never fails to impress all.

* This does not mean that Elon has departed from her decision not to enroll over four hundred students in a year. The explanation is sought in the presence of the Students' Army Training Corps here and the influenza epidemic. "Four hundred" is Elon's goal and is likely to continue to be.

Early Beginnings.

Elon College is an evolution, the evolution of the desire for a college on the part of the Christian Church in the South. The pioneer in the field of religious education among the people who later founded Elon was Elder Daniel Wilson Kerr, who, according to the North Carolina State Records, in 1826 was teaching in Wake County and of whose work the following mention is therein made (1826): "The Wake Forest Pleasant Grove Academy, situated on the Oxford road twelve miles north of Raleigh, N. C., was incorporated with Elder Daniel W. Kerr as principal." Twelve years later he was principal of Junto Academy, formerly called Mt. Pleasant, which was incorporated in 1838. In 1842 Junto Academy was burned and when rebuilt called Mt. Zion Academy. Seven years later Mr. Kerr moved his school to Pittsboro, N. C., where he continued to teach until his death in 1850. With Elder Kerr's death his school ceases, but to him is due the honor of having first conceived the idea of a fitting school for his church. It is true that he began the schools he headed on his own initiative, but they were endorsed by the conferences of his church, and were regarded by him as denominational schools, but not as sectarian in any sense of the word.

Two years after his death the seed of his sowing bore a finer fruit in the establishment of Graham Institute in Graham, the county seat of Alamance, with Rev. John R. Holt as principal. At first this school was conducted as a high school for boys, but in 1857 it was chartered as Graham College, with Prof. W. H. Doherty, Yellow Springs, Ohio, as president, under whose administration it flourished until the Civil War, during which it suffered such depletion that its doors were closed.

In 1865 Rev. W. S. Long, A. M., D. D., opened a high school in Graham, which later came into possession of the Graham College property, and operated the school as Graham Normal College. It was endorsed by the conferences of the Christian Church and ceased to exist upon the opening of Elon College in September, 1890.

The Founding.

In 1887 the Committee on Schools and Colleges of the Southern Christian Convention, who were Dr. W. S. Long, chairman; Dr. J. Pressley Barrett, secretary; Rev. J. W. Holt, Dr. J. U. Newman (by request), and Mr. J. W. Harden, leased the grounds and buildings of the Graham Normal College, intending to make of it a college for the education of ministers, laymen, and lay-women under positive religious surroundings, but, finding the equipment not exactly commensurate with the needs, had a session of the Southern Christian Convention called to meet in Graham in September, 1888, to give further consideration to the needs of the college then being projected.

This called session heard offers of land and money from Burlington, Graham, Mill Point, Gibsonville, and Greensboro, for the location of the proposed college in their several localities. After careful consideration it was voted to leave the decision of the matter in the hands of the following Provisional Board: Dr. W. S. Long, Dr. J. P. Barrett, Hon. F. O. Moring, Hon. J. H. Harden, and Dr. G. S. Watson. The Convention adjourned on September 14, having appointed Dr. J. P. Barrett Financial Agent, who, however, could not accept on account of his heavy work as an editor, and in whose place Dr. W. S. Long was chosen.

The Provisional Board visited all the places making offers for the location of the proposed college, and on December 20, 1888, decided to locate it at Mill Point, the present Elon College, the seventy-five-acre campus being given by Hon. W. H. Trollinger, Haw River, N. C., and twenty-three other acres and four thousand dollars in cash being given by the citizens of the rural community then surrounding the site.

Dr. W. S. Long was chosen President as well as Financial Agent, and at once set to work at his task. The first cash donation to the college was by Mr. J. P. Bland, Pittsboro, N. C., while Dr. Long himself had the distinction of making the first subscription. The first public appeal for funds for the institution was made at Berea, Nansemond County, Va., and resulted in the raising of $635.05, of which Deacon Willis J. Lee, who has been a trustee of the college since its foundation and whose generosity to it has been abundant from that day to this, gave $250.

The General Assembly of North Carolina chartered the college March 11, 1889. May 7 of that year the first shovel of dirt was removed for the foundation and thirteen days later the first brick was laid with appropriate ceremonies. The college opened its doors for students September 2, 1890. Dr. W. S. Long remained President for four years. He was succeeded upon his resignation by Rev. W. W. Staley, D. D., who served as non-resident President for eleven years, with Dr. J. U. Newman as his Dean for nine years, and Dr. J. O. Atkinson for the other two. Upon Dr. Staley's resignation, Dr. E. L. Moffit was chosen as President, serving in this capacity until his resignation in June, 1911. The present President was chosen as Dr. Moffit's successor in June, 1911.

The Plant.

Elon College now has a plant valued at more than $325,000, consisting of the Administration building, the East Dormitory, the West Dormitory, the Central Power Station, the Alumni Building, the Ladies' Hall, the Men's Co-operative Hall, the Laboratory Building, the West End Hall, a farm of 100 acres, an athletic field, and other lands. The plant needs now a church, a library building, a science hall, and a departmental building, with beautification of the grounds.

The Endowment.

The endowment now consists of $511,121.57, $375,000 of which consists of the Standardization Fund raised March 1 to June 30, 1919, and but $30,000 of which has now been paid in. It is expected that the church will as readily pay the remainder as the subscriptions fall due as it generously oversubscribed the quota assigned each local congregation in the drive.

Budget 1918-1919

The total cost of operating the college during 1918-1919 was $77,749.33. The Students' Army Training Corps last year brought a loss financially of slightly more than $5,000, but perhaps it was only right that all of us, men and institutions alike, should suffer in the cause of human liberation.

Summer School of Christian Methods.

In the summer of 1920, the college purposes to begin a Summer School of Christian Methods, which it is hoped will mean much for the functioning of the college more completely in the local churches.

JIREH COLLEGE

By D. B. Atkinson

Jireh College owes its origin to two former students of Legrand, now Palmer, College. When college days were passed for these young men, one went westward and became the pastor of a church in Lusk, Wyoming. When he wanted a minister to assist him in a series of meetings, he called his college friend. They had a delightful meeting, and also spent some time in rambling over the surrounding country. One day they climbed a hill about twelve miles west of Lusk, and looked out over a fine, rolling prairie. That land gave promise of a future community of prosperous citizens, and as they gazed, there came to them a vision of a town, a college, a church, and a country community. Why not make that town the center of a Christian community, and that college a Christian college?

These brethren were Rev. Frank G. Coffin and Rev. George Dalzell. Their vision was the inspiration of a number of articles which appeared in The Herald of Gospel Liberty. Plans were made to make the vision a reality. A company was organized to buy land for the town site and to foster the enterprise during its infancy. The company was called the Jireh Land Company. It purchased one hundred sixty acres of land and platted it for the town of Jireh, reserving about twenty acres for the college campus. It also secured an option on a quarter section of land adjoining the town site on the east. This land was later purchased by Brother and Sister Levi J. Wilkinson and by them given to the college.

A few friends from Iowa, Indiana, Ohio, New York, and other States manifested their faith in the enterprise by taking homesteads in the vicinity. This was in 1908. By October of that year, several families had located in this section, and Mr. Theron S. Grant had erected a small building and put in a stock of general merchandise. The new settlers came together and with their own hands built their first church house, which was used also for the public school.

During the winter of 1908-1909 and the summer following, the Executive Committee of the Jireh Land Company, composed of Rev. F. G. Coffin, Rev. George Dalzell, Rev. Daniel B. Atkinson, and Alvin W. Meade, held frequent meetings, planning for the new college. Plans for the building were made by Mr. L. F. Coffin, architect, and the corner stone of the new building, now called Wilkinson Hall, was laid October 21, 1909. A public meeting was held on this occasion and an address was delivered by Representative Frank W. Mondell, of New Castle, Wyoming. Mr. Mondell was a member of Congress.

Rev. George C. Enders was elected the first president of the college. President Enders completed arrangements for classroom work to begin January 1, 1910, but inclement weather prevented the building from being ready at that time. However, a few classes were organized and recitations conducted in the church building. The first term of school to be conducted in the new building was begun July 18, 1910, and continued six weeks. The instructors were President Enders and Prof. Harry Haas.

President Enders resigned at the end of his first year's service, and Rev. William Flammer was elected to the office. President Flammer devoted his time chiefly to financial matters, and served the institution for one year. Rev. Daniel B. Atkinson was elected his successor.

Jireh College is organized as a Junior College and offers four years of high school work and two years of college work, and also has a department of Music and of Art. The annual enrolment has increased from four in 1910-1911 to sixty. Special attention has been given to the high school courses and such normal studies as meet the needs of the students. Plans are being made for the reorganization of all courses, the erection of new buildings, the equipment of the college for more extensive work, and the more complete adaptation of the college to Wyoming needs.

All the young men who have graduated from the college, except one, were enrolled in the United States army or in the Students' Army Training Corps during the World War. The service flag of the college bears one gold star for Mr. Earl Norris, who entered the service a few days after graduation and died soon after reaching France. Captain Lysle S. Powell rendered distinguished service in the aviation corps and served under Food Commissioner Hoover in the distribution of food after the signing of the armistice. In this capacity he visited sixteen of the countries of Europe.

The present Board of Trustees is composed of the following named persons: Rev. Frank G. Coffin, D. D., Albany, Mo.; George H. Grant, Jireh, Wyoming; Charles W. Pfeifer, Jireh, Wyoming; H. Elmer Seward, Jireh, Wyoming; Frank Stevens, Keeline, Wyoming; Mrs. Ella Sheldon Watson, M. A., Keeline, Wyoming; Rev. Clarence Defur, D. D., Frankfort, Indiana; Joshua M. Norris, Jireh, Wyoming; C. Arthur Whelan, Jireh, Wyoming; E. E. Fullerton, Jireh, Wyoming; Rev. Christian G. Nelson, M. A., Gresham, Nebraska; Rev. William Freeman, Keeline,Wyoming; Rev. Warner S. Alexander, B. A., Van Tassell, Wyoming, and Rev. Daniel B. Atkinson, D. D., Jireh, Wyoming.

President and Mrs. Atkinson were given a leave of absence during the year 1917-1918 on account of Mr. Atkinson's ill health. This, together with war conditions, caused the college to curtail its work for the year. The president returned to the college in August of 1919, but too late to do any effective field work for students. The enrolment, however, has reached sixty-two. The faculty for the present year is as follows: Daniel B. Atkinson, M. A., D. D., President, Professor of Education; Ruth Ford Atkinson, B. A., Professor of Mathematics and Art; Mildred A. Kinney, B. A., Dean of Women, Professor of English and History; Florence M. Lovelace, Professor of Music.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF EDUCATIONAL WORK WITHIN THE ONTARIO CHRISTIAN CONFERENCE

By Rev. W. P. Fletcher, A. M.

In the early years of our history education was not deemed of much value. Our ministers came from the plow or from other humble walks of life. Some of them, however, were great Bible students and did a great deal of good in those early pioneer days. Then some promising young men went over to Starkey and later on a goodly number for a small conference to the Christian Biblical Institute. But the serious thing from our view-point was that only a very few ever came back to our Canadian work, and from this handicap we have never recovered. In 1888 J. N. Dales graduated from Toronto University and entered into his life work with an ardent love for his church and an undying sense of the need of an educated ministry. He began looking around for ministerial prospects, and he was splendidly seconded by Mr. Elmer Lick, who had graduated from our Agricultural College, and the ever young-old preacher, Elder T. Garbutt. The present writer had decided to enter the ministry and desiring to have a complete college course was planning to teach and thus earn money to go through his course. Bro. Dales, feeling the need of young men in our ministry, as early as possible urged the churches to take up an annual offering for educational purposes, and by rooming the young prospect in his own home without charge, our first young preacher, a graduate of a Canadian college, was ordained in 1895. This was the beginning of an educational work that has helped our Zion in a wider field than just our own conference. After a few years the Palmer Fund came to our aid and Bro. Dales was enabled to leave the teaching profession and give himself entirely to the work of the church. For some time he taught and became the rallying center for our students in MacMaster University and now for some years to the pastorate and the work of seeking out and encouraging young men to enter the ministry. In 1912 a building was secured in Toronto as a students' home and named Kirton Hall in memory of the man whose gifts made the enterprise a possibility and this has been the center of our educational work ever since. The war dashed some of our hopes, but we are hoping soon to recover lost ground. Our educational standard for ordination is now quite high, and our people are willing at any time to raise it higher. No young man in our conferences looking to the ministry would need to be urged to secure a college education, for the work of these years has created the atmosphere for an educated ministry.

Kirton Hall is a Fellowship Residence for young men preparing for the ministry of the Christian Church. Students in Residence may take any course of study in any college in Toronto approved by the dean. There are no fees and the cost of the accommodation for ministerial students is nominal. Our attendance during 1918-1919 has been irregular on account of enlistment and service in the war. There is a guest room for the free lodging of ministers of the Christian Church whenever they may be in Toronto. For further information, address the Dean, Prof. J. N. Dales, 513 Markham, Toronto.

The Seaside Chautauqua and School of Methods of The Christian Church

BY REV. WARREN H. DENISON, D. D.

Officers, 1919-1920—President, Rev. C. H. Rowland, D. D., Franklin, Va.; Vice-President, Rev. W. H. Denison, D. D., Dayton, Ohio; General Secretary, Mr. S. M. Smith, Norfolk, Va.; Assistant General Secretary, Rev. L. E. Smith, D. D., Norfolk, Va.; Recording Secretary, Rev. W. W. Staley, D. D., Suffolk, Va.; Treasurer, Mr. Walter C. Rawles, Norfolk, Va.

The faculty consisted of such well-known Christian workers as Rev. Geo. C. Enders, D. D.; Mr. W. C. Pearce; Rev. Roy C. Helfenstein, D. D.; Mrs. Isaac Sewell; Rev. L. E. Smith, D. D.; Rev. E. K. McCord, D. D.; Rev. H. G. Rowe; Mr. Hermon Eldredge; Rev. J. Vincent Knight; Rev. G. Herbert Ekins; Rev. R. F. Brown, Rev. Peter Ainslie, D. D.; Rev. J. F. Burnett, D. D.; Rev. Wm. Mason Jay; Rev. F. H. Peters, D. D.; Rev. W. P. Minton; Rev. Finis S. Idleman; Rev. E. B. Bagby, D. D., and others.

Central Executive Committee consists of the officers and Mr. I. A. Luke, Holland, Va.

Program Committee—Rev. W. H. Denison, Chairman; W. A. Harper, Hermon Eldredge, S. M. Smith, and Rev. C. H. Rowland.

The sixth session of this School of Methods was held at Virginia Beach, Norfolk, Va., July 29 to August 5, 1919. It was in many respects the best session yet. It was a real school for training leaders and for giving instruction to Christian workers. The themes were Bible Study, Elementary Sunday-school Work, Sunday-school Organization, Christian Leadership, Christian Endeavor, Church Problems, Missions, Sermons, The Forward Movement, Chautauqua Lectures, etc.

The Commission Christian Unity of the Christian Church and the Society for the Promotion of Christian Unity of The Disciples of Christ held a joint session during the Chautauqua.

The work of the Seaside Chautauqua and School of Methods has been so valuable to our church life and workers that the management adopted a resolution requesting The American Christian Convention functioning, through its various boards, to establish, foster, and aid in the support of Summer Chautauquas and Schools of Methods in all sections of our denomination.

Plan now to attend the next session, which will begin July 29, 1920.

REPORTS TO THE JOINT BOARD

The following-named Boards of The American Christian Convention, and the Trustees of The Christian Publishing Association, met in joint session, in Dayton, Ohio, October 21 to 24, 1919—Executive, Home Mission, Foreign Mission, Educational, Sunday-school, and Christian Endeavor.

The president of The American Christian Convention was made permanent chairman, the president of The Christian Publishing Association permanent vice-chairman, and the Convention Secretary permanent secretary of the joint sessions.

It was voted:

That the reports of the various Boards, approved by the joint session, be published in The Christian Annual, for 1920.

Publishing

The plan of work for The Christian Publishing Association is along the same lines as we have been following in recent years.

Some of the results of working our plan during the past year are that when books were closed September 30, 1919, they showed resources of the house amounting to $162,109.42 and liabilities to amount of $26,692.31, making net worth of the house business $135,417.11, and in hands of Treasurer additional resources of $2,595.96, or a total net worth of $138.004.07.

At our last Annual Meeting it was found necessary to increase the price of all our publications, because of the heavy advances in all materials and labor. This resulted in a decreased circulation for every one of the publications, but brought more returns for those sent out than the previous year. In a strictly commercial business the prices of the product should be further increased, but it is not deemed expedient to do so at this time, and they will be furnished during the next year at same prices as prevailed during the year just closed.

It was impossible to estimate, or in any way anticipate or appropriate the various items or amounts of increases that would have to be met and borne during the year—and they have continued during the year—so that the net gain of the business was only $511.92, which is too near the dividing line to say that we have done more than been able to keep the business going.

The matter of circulation of the church paper, The Herald of Gospel Liberty, is probably of special interest. That account shows the least loss it has for some years, this time being $1,219.45, not including any part of the office salaries account. A special effort was made to secure new subscribers during the hot summer months, and resulted in a net increase of practically 25%, but the mailing list for the paper is yet over 400 less than it was one year ago, now being in round numbers, 3,800. The taking and reading of The Herald by every household of our membership is a more vital and valuable matter to the reader himself, to the different departments of our work and to the church as a whole, than to the publisher, perhaps, so that assistance in increasing this list should be a matter of concern and attention by every minister and worker of our brotherhood. The average cost for the papers mailed for the year has been more than $2.50 each, but increases over present list will not bear same proportion of cost, for the editing, type-setting, proof-reading, make-up, make-ready, and some other items would remain the same for whatever number we might print.

The books of the Association were audited by a public accountant, as they have been each year for the past eight years, and reports as made by Manager found correct.

The total amount of business done by the Publication Department for the year, which includes the church paper, Sunday-school publications, and supplies, books, etc., was $54,169.69, and by the Commercial Job Printing Department, $20,154.19; a total of $74,323.88. Last year's total was $63,711.14. Increase in volume of business this year over last $10,612.74, of which $5,847.36 is in Publication Department, and $4,765.38 in Job Printing Department.

A feature of this increase, and of the whole business of Publication Department, that has caused considerable extra labor, and therefore expense, is the practice of a great many Sunday-schools, and individuals too, perhaps, of having their supplies and books billed to them, when a little planning and attention would enable them to conform to the long-established rule of the house that cash should accompany order.

The Association desires the hearty co-operation of all the brotherhood.

Sunday-school

While it is true that every department of the church is inclined to feel that it is the most important, we know that it is true of the Sunday-schools. No other organization the world over, in the church or out, has a place for every individual of every race or color from the day of his birth to the day of his death. We welcome the newborn baby into the Cradle Roll, and he may draw his last breath as a member of the Home Department, having spent every intervening year in a department suited to his needs, and studying a lesson prepared especially for him.

Our field is the world, and every individual in it. Our opportunity is as wide as God's mercy, and the need is as great as His world. How shall we avail ourselves of our opportunity, and meet this need? It cannot be done wholly by raising money, or by educating ministers, or by building churches, or endowing colleges. These are all good and all necessary, but the man or woman without previous training will not give money, the minister cannot preach to empty pews, and the college will find its greatest recruiting ground in the Sunday-school room of the Christian Church. While you are conserving the church of the present, and caring for the people of to-day, we are building the church of the future, and preparing for generations yet unborn. We have therefore set as our objective the reaching and touching of every child within the bounds of our work, the rearing of the child so that his life wherever spent may be a consecrated life, and a constant enlarging of those bounds that more lives may be reached and touched.

In order to accomplish this, your new Board, on taking over the work, felt it to be most necessary that an accurate survey of our field of work be made, and full statistics be gathered. The only statistics we have had for many years have been "About one thousand schools, and about 100,000 members." After from three to five requests for information, directed to the Sunday-school secretaries of our seventy conferences, and to the officers of the local schools, where such officers were known, we have received reports from 508 schools, showing a total enrolment of 52,795. Even this is not correct, as some schools have not reported enrolment and others have given numbers which are obviously estimates. From the following fifteen conferences we have not a single school reporting: Eastern Atlantic (Colored), Kentucky (District No. 1), Kentucky (District No. 2), Kentucky Christian, Michigan, Nebraska, North Carolina (Afro), Northern Kansas, Northern Michigan, Northwestern Ohio, Ohio Valley, Osage (Eastern Division), People's (Colored), Salt Creek, Southwestern West Virginia, Western Pennsylvania, West Virginia.

From several others, only two, three, or four schools have reported, so that our survey and our knowledge is as yet incomplete. It was no part of the original plan of this Board to go to the local school, but we have found it impossible to get statistics from the Secretaries. Some have never been notified of their appointment to that position; others do not answer for reasons unknown. The information in the Annual very seldom extends as far as Sunday-school statistics.

We have voted to make our financial goal for this year the raising of the sum of $10,000.00. Of this sum, $5,000.00 will be our apportionment for Missions, $3,000.00 for the Armenian and Syrian Relief work, and the remainder for our budget as approved by the Board of Church Polity.

The Armenian and Syrian situation is desperate, the need immense and immediate. Last year in the drive made for relief funds, our church gave, or at least received credit for, only $1,572. This year we are anxious that our Sunday-schools shall make an offering of at least $3,000.00 and to this end have set the date for the drive on Sunday, February 22, 1920. Full information and material for this drive can be secured from the Near East Relief Committee, No. 1 Madison Avenue, New York City. They have prepared a short play which will be found very helpful in depicting the need for the work and in raising the money. They also have programs for those who desire something simpler, and leaflets, report blanks, etc., etc., to assist in raising this money.

The World's Sunday-school Convention, which was to have been held at Tokyo, Japan, in 1916, and was deferred on account of the war, will now be held in October, 1920. We feel that our Board should have a representative at this Convention in order that the Sunday-schools of the Christian Church may be officially represented in this great Convention. The cost of this trip, including an eight to eighteen-day survey of the missioin fields, would be from $800.00 to $1,000.00. If this cannot be arranged for, this Board will co-operate with some other board or boards in sending such a representative.

In planning all of our work, we have kept in mind the Forward Movement of the church as it relates to the Sunday-school. We have adopted it as the basis for all our plans, scopes, activities, and objectives, with its monthly emphasis on particular phases, and we are looking forward to the time when every school will be a "Standard School," with a "Forward" movement; with an outlook, as well as an inlook, and with a vision of service that shall send volunteers out as recruits for life service, as well as money to meet their expenses, while behind them will stand solidly a praying, working, giving band of Christians who have so studied as to be approved of God and who have become workmen that need not to be ashamed.

We most heartily approve of the work being done at the Virginia Beach Chautauqua and School of Methods, and we recommend that its plans be reproduced as far as possible at Winona Lake, and Craigville, and that other such schools of method be started in strategic parts of the field when opportunity offers, or the field opens up for this work. In addition to this, we recommend the holding of institutes or group conferences in the local conferences or in central places where a group of five or six schools can be easily reached. By this means, our workers will become acquainted not only with each other, but with the best thought and work of one another; their problems will be more easily solved, and their work become a real joy in service. For any such group conferences, this Board offers its assistance in preparing the program, suggesting topics, etc.

We request every conference to give ample time on its program for the presentation of the Sunday-school work. A suggestive program for such work will be provided for the use of the program committees. Such programs of Sunday-school work shall include a statement of the work and aims of this Sunday-school Board. We note with approval the plans under way by some of our colleges to conduct a summer training school for religious workers. We most earnestly beg that such schools shall remember the needs of the teachers in our Sunday-schools, and the pupils whom they teach.

We recommend that, instead of the "Responsive Reading" as given in our quarterlies, at least two "Programs" for the Sunday-school hour be presented, with suggestions as to responsive readings, hymns, opening and closing exercises and so forth. We would suggest that these programs be so arranged as to stress the monthly program of the Forward Movement. In addition, would request that one or more pages each month be devoted to the Organized Class work.

We feel that we cannot stress too highly the need of Teacher-Training, and we urge most strongly that this work be taken up in every church. The course endorsed by this Board is the Pilgrim Training Course for Teachers.

Feeling convinced that no one person can, with justice to himself or others, edit Sunday-school material for all departments, we look forward to the time when the literature of each division of the Sunday-school may be edited by those who have made that phase of the work their special study. We especially urge that as rapidly as possible, our schools be led to see the necessity for introducing the graded work for the various departments.

Through this Board, our Sunday-schools are represented on the International Lesson Committee and the Sunday-school Council of the Evangelical Churches of Christ. We believe that this representation has been of great value to our church and especially the Sunday-school Department.

We feel, Mr. Chairman, that while we cannot exist without the other departments of the church, yet, also, no department can exist without us. There will be no missionaries, unless the Sunday-school has taught them to see that the field is the world, and that they must obey the command to "Go." There will be no such offerings as we ought to have, unless the youth has been taught in his impressionable years to bring an offering unto the Lord. There will be no pupils to attend and keep alive the traditions of our colleges unless they are turned toward them while studying in the Sunday-school, and finally, we believe that there will be fewer and fewer ministers of the gospel, unless all possible efforts are made to aid and build up the Sunday-schools, by all possible Christian methods so that the Lord shall walk in them, saying to the boys and girls who congregate there, "Follow me." The child in the midst, is the Master's order and it is divine.

Home Missions

The war with its great drives and its spirit of sacrifice has been blessed, or perhaps I should say used, of God in such a manner as to have been a great impetus to the work of missions.

It has enlarged the spirit of world brotherhood, and increased the willingness of men to allow the spirit of sacrifice to extend to the work of missions as well as for the sake of the suffering peoples of the war ridden countries. We are truly grateful to God that He has directed in such a way that the church has really been made more efficient because of its part in the war.

Partially as a result of the new developments coming out of the war, the Interchurch World Movement was brought into existence. It is one of the most encouraging signs for the betterment of the home mission cause, and has great promise in it for the fulfillment of the union of the church for which we as a people exist.

The surveys of that Movement are being pushed as fast as possible and already some of the countries in different States have completed the rural survey and are now having meetings to plan programs of work based on the findings of those surveys. One such meeting was held at Kenton, Ohio, on Friday (October 17) at which we were represented by the pastor of two of our churches in that county.

It is not a question as to whether churches are to be abandoned or not, so much as to whether they will unite for larger service.

The scarcity of pastors in all the denominations seems to indicate that the churches are going to be driven to that whether they want to or not. The survey will show where this is possible by doing away with so much overlapping and thus strengthening the work of the Kingdom.

The Movement does not in any way plan that there shall be a loss to the smaller denominations, but that they may have the advantage of the possibility of scientific co-operation. Wherever there seems to be a need of union of churches or for trading churches, the officials of the denomination are to be called in to consult in the matter.

While we are congregational in our government and unable to dictate to our churches what action they shall take, we should give every encouragement to this plan of better co-operation in the work of the Kingdom.

We are just beginning to learn that we are living in a new age and that most of us have not been prepared for it. The thing which seems to have affected us most vitally is that the churches are raising their standards of demands on the ministry and leadership, without raising the support for that leadership at the same time. The consequence is that we are suffering, as never before, a dearth of pastors for our churches. This to my mind is one of the greatest problems that we as a home mission board are facing. Numbers of churches think they are doing their work adequately, or offering to do so, when, because of changed conditions, they will need to have encouragement even with financial aid. An appalling number of our churches are now without pastors and seemingly no men to go to them without us conducting something like the old game of "Pussy Wants a Corner," and always having a number of vacancies and an unstable work in the others.

This has been the greatest burden on the heart of the secretary as the trouble finder of the denomination, and on the hearts of all those who have visited conferences.

With the realization of this fact, at the beginning of the last current year, when more than three hundred of our churches were without pastors, I wrote to all the conference secretaries and asked them to bring this situation to the attention of their executive boards. I recommended as a solution that each conference endeavor to have lay leaders appointed, especially in each church which was without a pastor, and that these lay leaders be made responsible for services of worship in the church aside from the Sunday-school.

Very little response came from this letter and yet it was not without some fruits. The secretary of the New Jersey Conference, who is a layman, was so taken with the thought that he immediately took up the work and made some visits to pastorless churches in that conference. The result was that he not only became interested himself in those churches but was able to so interest his conference that they raised a thousand dollar fund at the conference session to aid in the carrying out of a program to aid these churches. I report this not to try to get the credit for this department, but to show the possibility when laymen are properly interested in the work of the church.

Our visitation at the Eastern Ohio Conference made it possible for the Home Mission Department to get into a vital relationship with the work of that conference. They had been talking of the thought of having a field man look after the pastorless churches there.

I offered, on my own initiative without consulting my Board, to give financial aid to that work if they would ask Rev. W. E. Ewing to take up the work. This they readily agreed to do and elected Brother Ewing who is now conducting the dry campaign in his county, but who will take up the work almost immediately. The plan is to try to get pastors in all the churches if possible, and in other ways to give suggestions in the way of lay leadership, church programs, etc. The Home Mission Secretary will give all the assistance possible.

At the Erie Conference a committee of three of the leading pastors was appointed to do something of the same work that is outlined above in giving assistance to the pastorless churches of that conference.

There is a plan in the Southern Ohio Conference to secure a field secretary for that conference, and I have asked that this Board be given an opportunity to aid in the support of that worker in order that we may aid both financially and in every other way possible in securing more adequate leadership in the pastorless churches of that conference.

We were unable to get a man for the work of field missionary as planned last year, consequently nothing was accomplished in that way. In fact, I have come to the conclusion that it is impracticable to get a man for the whole field, and that it will be much better for the Board to aid conference field workers.

Conference Visitation.

Besides the Interdenominational Conferences, such as the Home Missions Council and Interchurch World Movement Educational Conference, also the Setting up Conference of the Home Mission Survey of the Interchurch World Movement, I have attended ten of our own conferences, speaking both on the home mission problems and the Forward Movement. Among these were a number of our weaker conferences. My study of these latter has led me to believe more than ever that the source of the weakness is in the lack of prepared leadership.

The majority of the ministers in them are giving much of their time to other lines of work in order to keep up their exchequer.

I have found also that the standards of the laymen of these same conferences are much above the average of their organizations because their church life has not kept in line with their individual developments. This all leads me to believe that the home mission work of our church might profitably co-operate with the Educational Board for better equipping our present pastors for the kind of service that is needed of them. My thought is that we give aid to the organization of summer schools such as was suggested by Defiance College last year, and that we even offer, when men are not financially able to attend such schools, to give them some financial aid. Many an untrained man is in the ministry because of natural abilities, which if properly cultivated would make him most valuable.

Other denominations are recognizing this fact and are making it possible for these men to train themselves for larger service, and are doing it as home mission work.

Finance.

Home Missions is never able to report all that is done for that cause in the whole denomination along the line of finance, as many of the conferences and conventions do so much home mission work in which the money does not pass through the hands of this treasury. Many of the conferences have done more in that way this year than ever before, and some excellent work, too. One of the conferences raised its conference apportionment from twelve and one-half cents per member to fifty cents. Dr. Atkinson writes me that at the time of the meeting of their Board they had $25,000.00 in the treasury of the Mission Board of the Southern Christian Convention. Thus there is much Home Mission work being done in the denomination which we are not able to report.

Our receipts from general sources this year were $16,815.09, which is $2,736.54 more than they were last year. The total net receipts for home missions from all sources was $21,201.38, or an increase of $3,746.17 over the net receipts of last year. While this is small in comparison to the ability of the church to give, we are not discouraged with the development of our mission work along financial lines. Figures do not tell the whole story by any means. Men are teaching the opportunities of stewardship and planting the seed for the future in a way that is sure to bring a fine harvest. Tithing is being taught and practiced more than ever was dreamed could be in our church.

On account of not having paid many of the salaries of home missionaries before the close of last quarter, we report a larger home mission credit than we would have had we paid all the debts for last year's work.

The Anthony Wayne Library
The Defiance College

I trust that the Board will plan for much larger things this year and that we may accomplish our aims.

Franklinton College.

The Home Mission Department is now more vitally connected with Franklinton College than it ever has been. At the Convention at Conneaut the Home Mission Secretary was elected a member of the Board of Control of Franklinton, and then that Board elected him President and Treasurer.

Subsequently, at a meeting of the Executive Board of The American Christian Convention, I reported the danger of being unable to distinguish as to funds coming to the Home Mission Board for Franklinton and those which were to be credited direct to the treasury of Franklinton. To obviate this difficulty the Board ordered that the Home Mission treasury handle the Franklinton funds as a home mission fund and so credit it. Therefore, Home Missions is now back of the work at Franklinton in a very definite way.

Having come into power so late in the year, the new Board of Control had very little opportunity to make any changes in the policy of the school for the coming year.

Western Work.

Several months ago Rev. W. S. Alexander resigned the work in Wyoming. However, I urged him to remain in the work until the close of the year. He is now holding preaching services at three points in the eastern end of the field. At one of the points he felt that the people were becoming indifferent and so decided that it would be well to give his whole attention to the other places. The folks near the schoolhouse where the services were held, however, begged that he remain in the work and he promised to do so; they pay him fifteen dollars a month to keep on in the services.

By vote by mail the Board decided to accept the suggestion of the Board of Polity and assist in the salary of Dr. Atkinson, provided that he aid in the mission work oversight in connection with his school work.

We are at a place where we must have more money with which to build and compete strongly enough for our church to be respected or to co-operate enough not to encumber the ground.

In the work in Washington State the men who are on the field have done nobly in that they are bringing our church to the place where we are being recognized and respected for that which has been done. However, it has grown to the extent that there must be more men on that field as soon as it is possible to find them. Interdenominational forces are now starting a federated work among the logging men of that region with which we will perhaps have to unite before many years. Three denominations are now working together but, as yet, have not come into the immediate territory where our work has been done. The Woman's Board has had the support of this work as a special. They have furnished part of the money to buy an automobile for Mr. Caldwell. There is some money yet due for that purpose, although the machine has been ordered.

There are a few points where aid will be discontinued and some which have made quite a reduction in the amount that was asked from the Board. I believe that the time has come when our Board is ready to start new work in some field and to endeavor to make it adequate.

There are some churches which must be aided which are not thinking of asking aid from the Board because of their feeling that they have enough to do what is needed to be done, but which are not doing an adequate work for the opportunity which they have.

I shall bring these to the attention of the Home Mission Board more specifically.

Home Base.

We are hoping that the Forward Movement may have a great influence in establishing the work of the home base for all of our mission work so that the churches may come to realize the place they really hold in the maintenance of the work. The way in which the churches are responding to that appeal is very encouraging. We ought to build one new church this year and start another or two next year, churches which will be strong enough to appeal to the membership as a challenge for their best support.

I wish to acknowledge the fine support that the Woman's Board for Home Missions has given to the work of the Home Mission Department. They have aided in the circulation of The Christian Missionary, in planting the leaven of mission study classes in the churches, in raising a large share of the money that we have used in the work, and in promoting the general cause of missions.

Foreign Missions

The Foreign Mission Department of the Mission Board of the Christian Church met at Dayton, Ohio, Tuesday evening, October 21 and adjourned Thursday evening, October 23, 1919. All members were present with the exception of Rev. W. P. Fletcher, from whom a letter was read. Rev. E. K. McCord, D. D., Acting Foreign Mission Secretary, was asked to meet regularly with the Board. The following visitors were present at various times: Miss Carrie Robison, Rev. E. B. Flory, Rev. and Mrs. W. Q. McKnight, Rev. W. H. Martin, Rev. Wm. Williams, Mrs. Carrie Beaver, Mrs. E. K. McCord, and Rev. J. W. Harrell, D. D.

The newly qualified board elected the following officers: President, Rev. Warren H. Denison, D. D.; Secretary, Rev. Wilson P. Minton; Treasurer, Rev. Omer S. Thomas, D. D.; Mission Council, Denison, Winters, and Minton.

An appropriation to the Headquarters Building expense of the Committee on Reference and Council was allowed in the sum of $50.

Foreign Mission Secretary Minton was named to succeed Dr. M. T. Morrill on all co-operative committees and Acting Secretary McCord was asked to place the name of the Secretary in nomination to fill such vacancies as were created by the retirement of Dr. Morrill.

The Committee on Co-operation in Latin America was voted the usual apportionment of $200.

It was decided to create a fund for the building of homes for our foreign missionaries and the Secretary was authorized to encourage gifts for this purpose.

A special committee consisting of Acting Secretary McCord, Secretary Minton, and Mrs. M. T. Morrill was asked to make a thorough study of the Interchurch World Movement program for Japan and if necessary, to call the Board together to hear and act upon their recommendations.

The Secretary was requested to send suitable greetings to the Japan and Porto Rico Missions.

Japan.

The request of the Japan Mission for an additional fund for the Kannari Chapel was referred to the Woman's Board.

The action of the Japan Mission relative to the Narugo District was approved and the matter referred to the Woman's Board.

A year-in-grant of $250 was allowed the Garmans for the year 1919.

A grant of $25 was allowed toward the purchase of an organ for Utsunomiya, the balance to be raised by that church.

The requested grant for the building of the Naka Shibuya Church was ordered delayed owing to lack of proper funds.

A grant of $50 was allowed Miss Martha Stacy for language study.

It was voted that the money received for the temporary rental of the mission home during a short period in the summer be retained by Bro. Garman.

Foreign Mission Secretary Minton was asked to visit the Japan Field as soon as possible, preferably during the year 1920.

The Board urges that representative ministers and laymen of our denomination attend the World Sunday-school Convention in Japan, 1920, and that they shape their plans to visit our Foreign Mission work while there.

The matter of the unpaid balance for the Dogenzaki lot was referred to the Investment Committee of the Mission Board.

The Acting Secretary was authorized to call for funds to provide buildings for the night school, kindergarten, and the pastor's and teacher's residence on the Dogenzaki lot in Tokyo, for which $10,000 is needed.

The Japan budget was voted in the sum of $20,675.

Porto Rico.

The Porto Rico budget was thoroughly considered and voted in the sum of $9,540.

The salary of Rev. D. P. Barrett was fixed at $1,700, including children's allowances.

Rev. and Mrs. D. P. Barrett were voted a furlough, the same to be taken next year.

It was decided to begin the erection of a chapel at Santa Isabel at the earliest possible date.

It was decided to purchase an available property for a parsonage at Arus, and that some church or individual be given the privilege of assuming that obligation, the minimum price having been set at $750.

Acting Secretary McCord was instructed to inform the Mission Board of the Southern Christian Convention that the property in Porto Rico for which said board had appropriated $3,500 cannot be secured and that he ask the board to assist in buying another home for Miss Williams instead, in an amount not to exceed $5,000.

Missionaries Appointed.

Rev. W. H. Martin, Mellott, Ind., was placed under appointment as missionary to Porto Rico, the details of his sailing to be worked out by the Acting Secretary.

The privilege of undertaking the support of Bro. Martin was left open for some church or Sunday-school to assume.

The appointment of Rev. W. Q. McKnight was transferred from Porto Rico to Japan, with instructions to sail at the earliest moment.

Resolutions.

That we commend the action of The American Christian Convention at its latest session in authorizing a deputation to visit our mission field in Japan; and we call the attention of its Executive Board to the fact that the gathering of the World's Sunday-school Association in Japan will provide an opportune occasion for such a visitation.

That we express our hearty appreciation of the splendid work done by the Woman's Foreign Mission Board in exceeding their goal during the past year and that we request them to continue the support of the Sendai field.

That we learn with pleasure concerning the increasing interest in and giving for missionary work by the Southern Christian Convention as evidenced in the new and larger goal just set by our missionary workers there, viz.: $500,000 to be secured in cash and pledges within three years from this date for home and foreign missions. We hope this faith and vision may be not only blessed of God, and that this goal may not only be reached, but that in so doing it shall be an inspiration to every other section of our brotherhood.

That we express our hearty appreciation of the devoted leadership of Miss Carrie Robison, and the untiring efforts of our young people in providing for the chapel at Santa Isabel.

Resolved, That it is with regret that at this session of the Mission Board we lose from our membership and official service, Rev. Milo T. Morrill, D. D.

Dr. Morrill has been a member of the Mission Board of the Christian Church for twenty years and his service has been faithfully and unselfishly rendered. Of this time he has been Foreign Mission Secretary for more than twelve years and President of the Mission Board for several years. In all of these positions he has rendered most valuable service to the Kingdom and to our church.

We desire to express our appreciation of him as a man and a Christian and as an efficient and conscientious official. His administration has been characterized by his splendid statesmanship.

We congratulate Defiance College and the Christian Divinity School in securing his valuable services and wish him splendid success in this new relationship.

All matters of unfinished business at the close of the session were referred to the Mission Council.

Christian Endeavor

The Christian Endeavor Board, in annual session assembled, would submit for the consideration of the Joint Boards the following program for the current year:

I. SURVEY.—A general survey of the field as related to Christian Endeavor, with a view to ascertaining the actual conditions now existing and the opportunities for betterment and enlargement.

II. INCREASE.—An increase of 25% in the number of Young People's Societies.

An increase of 75% in the number of Intermediate Societies.

An increase of 75% in the number of Junior Societies.

An increase in total membership of the Young People's Societies of 2,000; of Intermediates, 300; of Juniors, 900.

III. STANDARDS.—

1. A 10% increase in membership.
2. 1/10th of the income of each society for the C. E. Department of The American Christian Convention.
3. 50 cents per member for missions.
4. 50% average attendance at C. E. prayer-meetings.
5. 10 comrades of the Quiet Hour.
6. 5 Tenth Legioners.
7. 2 Life Recruits.
8. 5 C. E. Experts.
9. Representative at Denominational C. E. gathering.
10. Representative at State or District C. E. Convention.

IV. FINANCE.—1/3 of membership of each society enrolled in the Tenth Legion. An amount equal to fifty cents per member to be raised for missions, one-half of which amount shall be devoted to Home Missions and one-half to Foreign Missions.

V. SERVICE.—That we adopt "The Monthly Service Program" of the United Society of Christian Endeavor.

VI. MISSIONS.—

1. We request the Missions Board to publish supplemental mission programs to be used by our Endeavor Societies, in connection with our monthly missionary programs.
2. We recommend the organization of Mission Study classes or groups in each society, where not otherwise provided for in the Young People's Missionary Society. Where there is such we recommend that the Endeavorers join such Study Classes.

VII. EFFICIENCY.—

1. 25% of our societies to adopt the Efficiency plans of the United Society of Christian Endeavor.
2. A Christian Endeavor Expert class in every C. E. Society.

VIII. EDUCATION.—

1. 20% of our Endeavorers taking the C. E. World.
2. 100% of our C. E. membership in the Sunday-school.
3. We recommend a reading circle in each C. E. Society, arranged in accordance with the five-point program of our Forward Movement. A suggested list of books for use by these Reading Circles will be published in the C. E. Department of The Herald of Gospel Liberty and also in the columns of the Christian Sun and The Christian Vanguard. We suggest that each society purchase the books for such reading course, to be used by their Circle.
4. That each society seek to have one or more of its representatives in one of our denominational schools.

IX. DEVOTIONAL.—

1. 75% of the membership enrolled as Comrades of the Quiet Hour.
2. 100% of the membership attending some devotional service of the church other than that of the C. E. Society.

X. ALUMNI ASSOCIATION.—

It is our firm belief that an Alumni Association should be organized in every society.

XI. EVANGELISM.—

1. A Personal Worker's Training Class in 50% of our societies.
2. New converts won to Christ equal to 10% of the active membership.
3. Members won to the church equal to 10% of the active membership.
4. 100% of the membership engaged in some form of service in the local church.

We further recommend a Committee on Young People's Work, in each local church, consisting of Presidents and Teachers of Young People's Classes, the Superintendent of the local Sunday-school; the Officers of Young People's Organizations, and the Pastor of the local church, whose duty it shall be to determine the program of study and activities for the Young People of the church.

Education

Effect of the War Upon Our Schools and Colleges.

The mobilization of the young manhood of the nation, in the prosecution of the great war could not but effect our educational institutions. Subject to the call of the government, to be sent where it listed, the life course of most of our able-bodied young men was temporarily, at least, deflected. Many were obliged to leave college, while some entered who would probably not have done so otherwise. The introduction of military training in all the colleges of the land, where units could be raised, tended to make more complex than usual the courses of studies. Finances, too, were greatly affected. The swift changes through which our schools have been obliged to go in their adjustments and readjustments have made the task of maintaining and developing their standards very difficult. Throughout the period of the war all our schools and colleges were kept in operation but one, and that suspended temporarily as a measure of expediency.

The Future of Our Ministry and Missionary Force.

The number of ministerial candidates reported by all our schools and colleges in 1916 was 110; in 1917, 85; and in 1918 only 52. The number reported this year is 73.

The situation is one to which the church is turning its attention with increasing earnestness. It is estimated that at least fifty young men and women, graduating from our colleges, should pledge themselves to the work of the gospel ministry, each year, for the next five years, in order that provision may be made for the increasing needs of the church. This will represent a fourfold increase of the number now in training. It is entirely possible before the five-year period is ended, with the impetus of the new life that is beginning to course through the church, this number will have to be augmented.

The imperative need demands the church adopt Christ's method of providing laborers—a universal resort to prayer. The burden must be laid upon officials, pastors, churches, and colleges. The experience of the past demonstrates not much success will be achieved in filling the thinning ranks and in providing leaders for new enterprises until the church prays the Lord of the harvest for harvesters. The Educational Board is asking assistance of our ministers in securing the names and addresses of all our youth who by reason of temperment, religious training, and intellectual capacity, the pastor thinks might be induced to consider the work of the gospel ministry. These names will be kept on file in the office of the Convention Secretary, Dr. Burnett, and from time to time literature will be sent them bearing upon the matter. Our colleges will be asked to co-operate by preparing literature with the educational appeal and placing it in the hands of all in their constituency. Bearing in mind the large number who decide for the ministry before attaining the age of sixteen the value of an early appeal on the part of the minister, or some friend in the church, must be kept in mind. The Educational Board will also expect to assist our schools and colleges in their efforts to place squarely before their student body the call for definite Christian service.

The Board is arranging for a $25 honorarium for the most acceptable article on The Call of the Ministry, open to all members of the Christian denomination; triplicate typewritten copy to be sent in by December 31, 1919, not to exceed 2,000 words in length, and to be passed upon by judges selected, if possible, outside the denomination by the Educational Board.

Educational Week.

The Board has set aside the week preceding the last Sunday in February as Educational Week. During this period, which coincides with "The Universal Day of Prayer of the Christian Student Federation of the World," all the churches and educational institutions of the denomination will be asked to join in prayer for the educational work of the church and of the nation, that it may be moved by Christian motive and infilled with the Christian spirit. Churches will be urged to utilize the opportunity to present the claims of Christian education to our youth and secure life recruits for Christian service. All organizations in the church, including the service of worship, the Church School, Young People's Societies, etc., will be asked to unite in making the week, including the last Sunday of the month, a period of educational value. Programs for such services will be published in The Herald of Gospel Liberty.

Forward Movement.

The Board has and will continue to co-operate in every possible manner with the Forward Movement Committee in bringing to the most successful issue possible the Five-Year Program. It is to be noted in this connection that in those conferences where the most advanced steps have been taken by the church and the greatest degree of optismism obtains as to its growth and power the pulpits are filled with graduates of our own colleges. The real success of the present and of any other Forward Movement of the church depends in a most certain way upon the contribution of our own colleges to the equipping of the future leadership of the church.

Council of Church Board of Education.

The Educational Board has been a corresponding member of the Council of Church Boards and was represented at the Annual Meeting in Chicago in April. It is expected the Board will be represented at future meetings of the Council. The influence of the Council of Church Educational Boards, representing as it does eighteen of the principal Protestant communions of the country, through the greater constituency behind it, is becoming manifestly more determined in the educational program of the whole nation.

The Interchurch World Movement.

The action of the Convention at Conneaut in endorsing the program of the Interchurch World Movement, of necessity lays upon the Educational Board the task of co-operating with the Movement in its world-wide program. The principal function of the Interchurch World Movement, from an educational standpoint, will be to make exhaustive surveys of national educational conditions and recommend such action as may be considered in the best interests of a religious educational policy for the nation. To this the Educational Board of the Christian Church will give every possible assistance.

Raising Educational Standards for Ordination.

At the Conneaut Convention the Commission on Education recommended, and the Convention adopted, the following resolution:

That a college education, or its equivalent, be the standard requirement for ordination to the gospel ministry by the Christian denomination for all persons entering the ministry, as a profession after January 1, 1919, and that a complete seminary course be the ideal set by this Convention, to be attained at the earliest date possible.

All our conferences are urged as strongly as possible to adopt this standard for ordination that there may be uniformity of action throughout the denomination. Such a standard has already been adopted by the Southern Christian Convention, and several of the leading conferences, to the very great enlargement and effectual working of the church in these sections. After one conference has refused ordination to an applicant, because of inferior educational qualification, it is manifestly unfair and unwise for another conference, perhaps contiguous, to ordain him without further requirement.

The Board is seeking to secure from all our conferences, acceptance of the Convention action.

Aid for Ministerial Students.

Your Board has adopted a new policy of aiding ministerial students. A Beneficiary Fund has been set aside for this purpose.

Apprcciating the fact, as other denominations have recognized for some time, that the future of the church at large must rest upon an educated ministry, we believe that our denomination must make a systematic effort to aid worthy young men in preparing for the ministry as a life work. Every progressive denomination has been making such provision for their young men for some time, and have reaped the benefits by way of efficient service and a deeper loyalty on the part of the ministers towards their respective denomination.

Some denominations make loans to their ministerial students as a means of assistance, the recipients signing a note to repay the amount, with a small rate of interest, within a certain number of years after graduation.

This plan has considerable in its favor, but it occurs to the members of your Board of Education that such a plan does not express the church's appreciation of the young men, who, because of their high estimate of the gospel ministry desire to prepare themselves efficiently for its tasks; and, furthermore, we believe that it is not fair to the young men themselves, nor to the churches they will serve after graduation, for them to have such a burden of debt imposed upon them. The inadequate salaries they will receive will not enable them to meet such obligations without unjust sacrifice on their part.

We believe that the laity of the church should express its appreciation of, and its belief in, an educated ministry, by making a continual investment in the work of educating the young men who are willing to devote their lives to the service of the church.

To this end it is the sense of your Board of Education that the Christian denomination shall offer a special incentive in the form of merit scholarship, to aid young men who are taking work in some accredited college, preferably one of our own schools, in preparation for the ministry.

The basis of such scholarships shall be as follows:

1. The scholarships are to be granted only to young men and women who declare their purpose at least to complete the college course, and take at least one year of work in a theological seminary, it being recommended by the Board that recipients of scholarships shall complete a full seminary course.

2. Any student preparing for the ministry in the Christian denomination, and maintaining an average grade of eighty per cent. in the literary subjects during the Freshman year, is to be awarded a cash scholarship of one hundred dollars, with the provision that he is not to take regular preaching appointments during the school year, and that he is to carry full college work.

3. Any ministerial student in the Sophomore year of college, who maintains an average grade of eighty-five per cent. in the literary subjects, will be awarded a scholarship of one hundred dollars, with the proviso that he is not to take regular preaching appointments during the school year, and that he is to carry full college work.

4. Any ministerial student, in the Junior and Senior year of college, who maintains an average grade of eighty-five per cent. in the literary subjects during the year, will be awarded a scholarship of one hundred dollars, with the proviso that during the Junior year he shall not take more than half-time preaching, and that in each year he shall carry full college work.

5. Any ministerial student, graduating from college, who has maintained an average grade of eighty-five per cent. in the literary subjects during the college course, will be awarded a cash scholarship of two hundred dollars for the first year in any accredited theological seminary, which meets with the approval of the Board, preference being given to a seminary of the Christian denomination, with the proviso that he is to pursue the regular required course of study, and does not assume the responsibility of full-time preaching service.

6. Any student maintaining an average grade of eighty per cent., or its equivalent, during his first year of the seminary course, is to be awarded a cash scholarship of one hundred dollars a year, during his second and third years of the seminary course. The Board realizes the possibility of second and third year seminary students taking regular supply work while pursuing their course of study.

Further Conditions Relative to Awarding Scholarships.

1. The recipient is to sign an agreement that in receiving the scholarship, he is pledged to the work of the ministry in the Christian denomination, as a life work, and that, if he decides to enter some other vocation, before graduation, or within five years after graduation, or if at any time within ten years he leaves the Christian denomination to engage in service for some other denomination, he is to pay back to the Educational Board, on demand, all scholarship funds received, with interest at three per cent. per annum.

2. These scholarships are to be paid in equal installments, at the end of each semester.

3. Application blanks will be furnished candidates for scholarships, upon request, and any candidate receiving a scholarship must first have the endorsement of the church to which he belongs, and of the conference of which he is a member.

4. If at any time a student receiving a scholarship, proves to be temperamentally, or morally, unfit for the work of the gospel ministry, the Educational Board reserves the right to withhold further aid.

5. The Board shall have the authority to act at its discretion in making scholarship awards to students taking advanced theological study.

Any young man or woman who is eligible for aid is invited to correspond with the Secretary of the Department, Rev. W. G. Sargent, 11 Rutland St., Providence, R I., with a view to furthering their plans of preparing themselves educationally for the ministry at home or abroad.

Organizations within the church, such as Brotherhoods, Women's Societies, Church Schools, Organized Classes, Young People's Societies, and churches themselves are invited to provide, in part or in whole, annual scholarship which will be devoted to helping some young man through college who desires to enter the gospel ministry and who would have difficulty in securing an education.

Districting the Field.

The Board was requested by The American Christian Convention to district the church in the interests of the educational development of the whole field. The task has been beset with much difficulty, but a subdivision of territory has been made which is herewith submitted:

Defiance College—Eel River Conference, Indiana; the States of Ohio, Michigan, Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, and Connecticut; the States of New York, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania to be worked jointly with Palmer Institute-Starkey Seminary in the interests of collegiate and secondary education respectively.

Elon College—The Southern Christian Convention.

Jireh College—A Home Mission educational institution and as such the special interest of the entire denomination.

Palmer College-Starkey Seminary—The States of New York, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania, to be worked jointly with Defiance College in the interests of secondary and collegiate education, respectively.

Palmer College—The Western Christian Convention.

Union Christian College—The States of Illinois, Kentucky, Wisconsin, and Indiana, with the exception of the Eel River Conference.

It is expected each institution will develop its own field in interesting the youth in college training and securing financial assistance through special college days and other methods. Our educational opportunities and needs must be clearly presented to every community and church if our constituency is to support our educational work as it should. In presenting the local institution each representative will be asked to set the educational task of the whole denomination before the people.

Evangelism in Our Colleges.

Our colleges are being urged to make some form of special evangelistic appeal to the body of students during the college year. While the Board does not undertake to suggest the form that presentation may take, it is strongly of the opinion a series of special services, stressing the Christian appeal and looking to the deepening of the spiritual life might well be held each year in all our institutions. For the purpose either some expert from outside or some member or members of the faculty may be utilized in the presentation of Christ's claims. This affords an excellent opportunity for the recruiting of young men and women for life service.

Summer Institutes at College Centers.

The Board is urging upon some of our colleges the value and possibility of Summer Institutes for Ministers. At least four of our colleges are so situated as to offer ample opportunity for such gatherings—Palmer, Union Christian, Defiance, and Elon. If the churches, ministers, and colleges will co-operate to this end the advantage will be very great. A ten days' or two weeks' course of lectures sometime during July or August, by experts in departments of Christian life and service, would contribute much to the greater efficiency of our church life. Two of our institutions, Defiance and Elon, purpose holding such institutes next year. If the churches will co-operate by sending their ministers they will reap a hundredfold by the venture. Wide and early publicity will be needed to secure the interest of all pastors in such a movement.

University Pastors.

No definite attempt, as yet, has been made by the Christian Church to meet the denominational need at state university centers. The only cities where state universities are located where there are Christian churches are Urbana, Illinois; Columbus, Ohio; Chapel Hill, North Carolina, and Albany, New York. The need for constructive work here is most serious. In state university senters where provision is not made our young people go to the institutions and are either uncared for spiritually or have to depend upon the good work being done by the university pastor of some sister church.

Appreciating that as we may the fact remains the church is losing greatly by not establishing churches in university centers which will at once afford an outlet for the Christian activities of young men and women going from Christian homes, and nurture the lives of such of our people as may be found in attendance in such institutions. Moreover with the fact the Christian Church has a message for our democratic age which is sadly needed, the opportunities for propogandic service are unlimited. The Board is thoroughly of the opinion co-operative action should be taken here by the Home Mission Board and the Board of Education.

Special College Days.

For some years some of our institutions have been following the practice of observing Annual College Days. The Sunday selected has been the opportunity of the college in question to present the claims of the institution upon the constituency in the midst of which its work is being done. Having worked successfully with those colleges that have most thoroughly tried the experiment, it has become a settled custom with them and has been adopted by others of our institutions.

Special Days are at present observed by those schools that have adopted the practice as follows:

Defiance—Second Sunday in November.

Union Christian—Second Sunday in July.

Elon—

Palmer—

The observance of Special College Days makes possible more thorough cultivation of the local church with respect to arousing educational interest, enlarging financial aid and securing the ear of the young people who may desire higher educational advantage, than can be done by the long arm of the Board, and for this reason, as well as for others, is to be commended.

Convention and Conference Educational Officials.

Five state conventions have educational representatives on their officiary—New York, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, and Western Christian Convention. New England has an Educational Society. Kentucky and Kansas State Conventions have no educational officials.

Thirty-two conferences, outside the bounds of the Southern Christian Convention, have Educational Secretaries. Four of the southern conferences have Educational Committees. The Afro-Christian Convention also has an Educational Committee.

These educational officials are the media of approach for the Educational Board to the Conventions and Conferences. No conference is too small or too peculiarly situated to have an educational representative on its official staff. Indeed, it is very significant that the conferences that are small are those who do not stress education.

Endowments.

Plans are under way, or have been completed, for enlarging our Endowment Funds over $1,000,000. Of this at least one-half has been raised. It is hoped before the year is completed the entire amount asked for will have been subscribed.

Finances.

The total amount of money raised last year for education by the church was ————. The amount passing through the treasury of the Board was $2,620.25, which with a balance of $324.38 made a total of $2,944.63. Of this, $400.64 was devoted to the expenses of the department. Grants to the amount of $2,343.99 were made to schools and colleges and $200.00 was devoted to interdenominational interests.

Every effort will be made this year to reach the $5,000 budget set by the Board of Church Polity for the Educational Department.

The two following resolutions were also submitted and adopted by the United Boards.

1. It is the judgment of the Board that the time has come for it to be incorporated, in view of the fact that probably $200,000 of the $1,000,000 Forward Movement Fund will be handed over to the Educational Board, and, also, that from this time forth, doubtless, bequests will be made from time to time.

2. That the request of the Trustees of Jireh College for a grant of $100,000 be made as soon as such funds shall be available, if in the judgment of the representatives hereafter to be appointed from the Educational and Home Mission Boards respectively, after they have made a thorough survey of the religious and educational possibilities of Wyoming, the opportunities warrant the denomination in investing so heavily in the Home Mission and Educational enterprise in the State of Wyoming. It being understood that Jireh College will secure its holdings to The American Christian Convention in such a way as shall be satisfactory to said Convention, and that a campaign will be opened at once in Wyoming to raise an equal amount of $100,000.00.

AGED CHRISTIAN MINISTERS' HOME

The Aged Christian Ministers' Home, Lakemont, N. Y., practically represents our denomination's chief effort to care for its ministers and their wives when they are too old to be able to carry on their work. The Home is located in one of the most beautiful places in the whole country. All the care that the income allows is taken of the residents. A larger endowment could give them many more comforts. A larger and more modern house with more rooms on the lower floor is needed, for stairs are not appreciated very much by people in the eighties. Many of our people have been very successful financially. Remember the Home! When you make your wills, plan to make the later years of God's retired servants brighter.

The members of the Home are Christian ladies and gentlemen, and as such are appreciated by all the people of the community. Rev. and Mrs. Edward French are well known in New Jersey, New York, and Pennsylvania. Rev. and Mrs. Robert G. Fenton were long in the New York Eastern Conference. The name of Mrs. Joseph Barney's husband was a household word in southwestern Pennsylvania, and those familiar with missionary annals must know of the widow of Rev. E. C. B. Hallam, long of India. The Home and its members are cared for by Mr. and Mrs. John Walters. The officers are: President, Rev. J. W. Wilson, Jamestown, N. Y.; Treasurer, Mr. James S. Frost, West Henrietta, N. Y.; Secretary, Rev. John MacCalman, Lakemont, N. Y. Trustees—Dr. M. Summerbell, Lakemont, N. Y.; Dr. F. S. Child, Fairfield, Conn.; Rev. John B. Gove, Sprakers, N. Y.; and Mr. John B. Pease, Gasport, N. Y.

THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH PROGRAM

By Rev. Warren H. Denison, D. D., Superintendent

Nothing has so gripped our people and united them so much in the writer's judgment as our Forward Movement program. In May the Forward Movement Committee was convinced that our goals were not nearly large enough, so at the time of the Conneaut Convention it recommended that the financial goal be raised from $500,000 to $2,000,000, and the plans so modified as to work for that end. This was one of the most enthusiastic actions of the Convention.

The Forward Movement program is a five-year program of work for the Christian Church. It is an intensive and extensive program of work that our church may do her part in meeting the tremendous needs of the world in this crisis hour of history. May God help our church to take her place and do her work now in this needy world! Never, never has there been such need. Our leaders have a vision of it and are determined that we shall not fail in this duty.

It is a five-pointed program for five years. Every church and pastor is expected to make the five items the program of the local church. Many of our pastors have already built their whole church life around these five fundamentals and reorganized the church upon that basis. The conferences, the district conventions, State associations, institutes, church boards, and all the agencies of the church are already making it their program. Never before in our history have our whole people been united upon a church program. There is inspiration in feeling that our whole church is behind the whole program. It is very pleasing to our people everywhere, and makes one of our strong appeals.

Such a program as that offered by our Forward Movement was officially woven into the denomination's program at the October meeting of the Executive Board of The American Christian Convention, October, 1919, when it adopted the following program with specific times for emphasis upon definite parts of it as follows:

January and February—Evangelism;

March, April, May, June—Missions;

July, August, September, October—Religious Education;

November and December—The Spiritual Life and Christian Stewardship. This program was submitted to and approved by the Mission, Education, Sunday-school, Christian Endeavor, Publishing, and Church Polity Boards.

To carry out such a Forward Movement program and to do our reasonable share of Christian work in the world, it is absolutely necessary that we raise in the five years, January 1, 1918, to January 1, 1923, at least two millions of dollars. One million of this is to be raised in the regular benevolent channels of the church, such as The American Christian Convention calls, missionary societies, conference funds, college endowment funds, etc., etc.

The other million is to be raised in a special canvass for five-year subscriptions. Already the canvass has been made in our New England churches and about $100,000 pledged there. Other individuals and churches have pledged so that fully $150,000 has been secured at this date for the special million. The Southern Christian Convention, Dr. J. O. Atkinson, Mission Field Secretary, has secured about $150,000 also for missions, and this will be a part of the special million of dollars. All our colleges are now in campaigns for endowment funds: Elon, Defiance, Union Christian, Palmer, Jireh. These are a part of the two million goal. Elon has completed its canvass with $375,000 as a result. The others are in the midst of their campaigns.

Our people can do things worth while; they want to do things worth while. They are doing, and will continue to go forward. The Forward Movement moves.

Total cash and pledges received on the subscription million of the Forward Movement to date, December 9, 1919, $146,459.45. Then the special mission fund being raised by the Southern Christian Convention, Dr. J. O. Atkinson, Mission Field Secretary, is approximately $150,000 at this date. These two amounts make approximately $300,000 raised at this date on the special five-year subscription million of dollars of the Forward Movement.

THE CHRISTIAN ORPHANAGE

ELON COLLEGE, N. C.

Authorized by The Southern Christian Convention

Chas. D. Johnston, Superintendent, Elon College, N. C.

"Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the the least of these. . . . . ye have done it unto me."

I am a little orphan girl,
My father dead, my mother poor,
To the Christian Orphanage I had to go.
A little grown-up nurse I want to be,
To nurse sick folks well, you see.
Don't you want to help me a little nursie be
And then I can nurse you some time, you see.

Board of Trustees—W. K. Holt, Chairman, Burlington, N. C.; C. D. West, Newport News, Va.; Dr. G. S. Watson, Elon College, N. C.; H. C. Simpson, Greensboro, N. C.; John R. Foster, Burlington, N. C.; B. D. Jones, Holland, Va.; Chas. D. Johnston, Elon College, N. C.

The institution is an institution of charity and is supported in the following manner. Each church is asked to make an annual Thanksgiving offering and an annual Easter offering. All Sunday-schools are requested to contribute one offering per month to the maintenance of the institution. Individual gifts and bequests are solicited.

The institution has had in its care 137 children. Seventy have gone out to make their way in life and sixty are in the building at the present time, which is the limit of its capacity.

A home for small children is very much needed and ought to be built in the near future. $20,000.00 will build and equip this building. Contributions for this cause will be very gratefully received.

METROPOLITAN DISTRICT CHRISTIAN CONVENTION

Historical

Pursuant to the recommendation of The American Christian Convention, a District Convention was organized at the Church of the Evangel, Brooklyn, New York, November 11-12, 1919. The territory covered by this Convention is Ontario (Canada), New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and West Virginia, these several territories including the following named Christian conferences: Ontario, New York Central, New York Eastern, New York Western, Tioga River, New Jersey, Rays Hill and Southern Pennsylvania, Western Pennsylvania, West Virginia, and Southwestern West Virginia.

The following named conferences appointed delegates to the initial convention: Ontario, New York Eastern, New York Western, New York Central, Tioga River, New Jersey, Rays Hill and Southern Pennsylvania, and West Virginia.

The delegates attending were Rev. Martyn Summerbell, Lakemont, N. Y.; Rev. W. H. Hainer, Irvington, N. J.; Rev. F. G. Coffin, Albany, Mo.; Rev. John Bowdish Gove, Sprakers, N. Y.; Rev. L. F. Johnson, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Rev. J. A. Foss, Sprakers, N. Y.; Mr. F. R. Beach, Irvington, N. J.; Rev. Arthur Humphreys, Plainville, N. Y.; Mr. J. B. Pease, Gasport, N. Y.; Rev. John MacCalman, Lakemont, N. Y.; Mr. James S. Frost, West Henrietta, N. Y., and Rev. Henry W. McCrone, St. Johnsville, N. Y.

Visiting brethren were: Rev. W. H. Denison, Dayton, Ohio, and Rev. A. G. Caris, Defiance, Ohio.

A temporary organization was affected by electing Rev. Henry W. McCrone, St. Johnsville, N. Y., President of the New York Eastern Christian Conference, Chairman. The Convention was then permanently organized, and, by vote, named, The Metropolitan District Christian Convention. The times of meeting were fixed to meet every two years, previous to, and succeeding, the sessions of The American Christian Convention.

Officers—Rev. Martyn Summerbell, D. D., Lakemont, N. Y.—President.

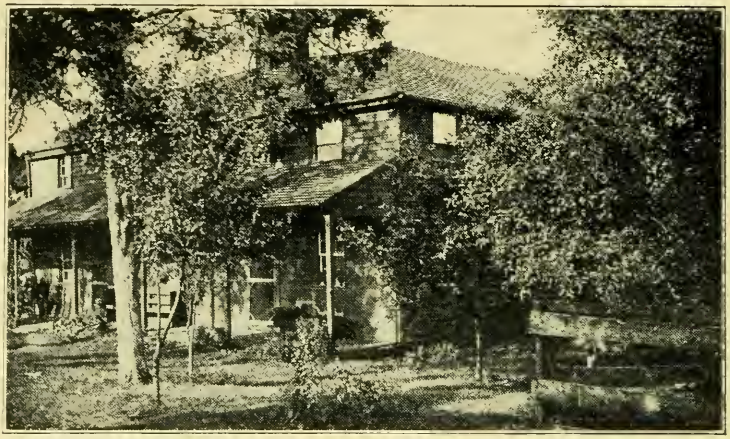
The date for sailing is set for March 6, 1920.

Centenary Conferences



Home of Nathan Hill, Pleasant Hill, Ohio, where, in 1819, the Miami Ohio Christian Conference was organized.

The Southern Ohio Christian Conference met in its one hundredth session at Westboro, Ohio, in October. This conference will be one hundred years old in 1920. It was organized at the mouth of Scioto Brush Creek—now Lawshe—in Adams County, in October, 1820. The First Centennial will be celebrated at Union Church, Adams County—the boyhood home of the editor of this publication—in October, 1920.

The Southern Wabash Christian Conference celebrated its one hundredth anniversary, at Olney, Illinois, in October, 1919. The early records—if kept—have not been available for a number of years and hence the place is not named with certainty; but the time of its organization is reliably certain. The program honored the event.

The Miami Ohio Christian Conference celebrated its centennial at the home of its birth, Pleasant Hill, Ohio, Aug. 30, 1919. It was a notable gathering. Special importance was given the occasion by the written history of the conference, the Centennial History of the Miami Ohio Christian Conference, which had been prepared by Rev. B. F. Vaughan, who had served the conference as secretary for 19 years.

REV. H. RUSSELL CLEM AND HIS FOUR BOYS

Rev. Mr. Clem is president of the Ohio State Christian Association and Secretary of The Christian Publishing Association. He is pastor of the First Christian Church, Springfield, Ohio, in which capacity he has served since in the fall of 1907. During this time the large and well equipped church edifice has been built and two mission points established, one of which has developed into an organized church.

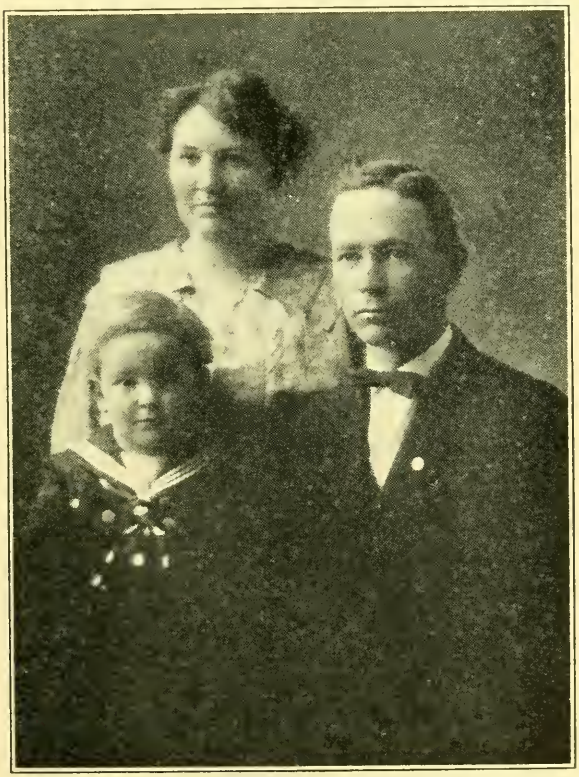
THE NORTH STAR CHRISTIAN CHURCH

REV. WM. H. NUNGESTER, PASTOR

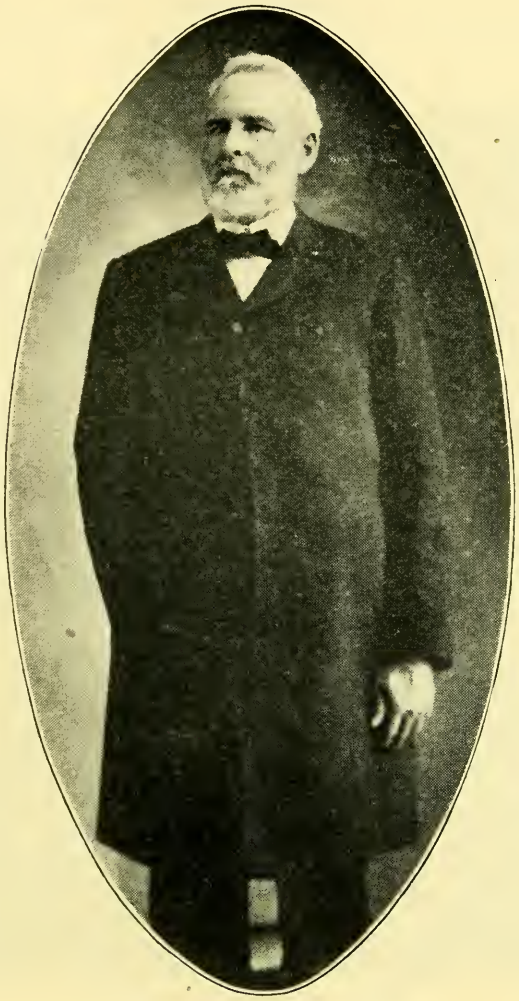
Old Church dedicated July 9, 1905. Destroyed by fire Sunday evening, February 17, 1918. New church dedicated July 20, 1919, Dr. W. H. Denison, Dayton, Ohio, officiating. Building modern, basement under entire building, electric light plant, elevated floors, Sunday-school rooms, etc. Cost, about $17,000.00. Below, Rev. Nungester, wife, and son.



REV. L. W. BANNON

Born in Deerfield, Warren County, Ohio, October 1, 1818. Joined the Christian Church in 1838. Became a minister in the Western Indiana Christian Conference, 1844. He missed but two sessions of the conference in seventy-four years. Died at Bloomingdale Indiana, October 20, 1919, aged 101 years and 19 days.

"And now behold, I know that ye all among whom I have gone preaching the Kingdom of God shall see my face no more."



REV. WILLIAM THOMAS HERNDON

Last Great-grandson of Rev. James O'Kelley

A worthy son of a noble sire.

In his early life he was an active and successful physician, but gave up his large and remunerative practice for the ministry of the gospel, to which he devoted his life and ability. He gave his denomination a sure standing in the Kingdom of God. He was an earnest advocate of temperance, and spoke for prohibition whenever and wherever possible. He was a great believer in education, and that he might help Elon College in a very direct way, he gave up his pastorate, and devoted himself to the financial interests of that institution.

OLIVER WORDEN POWERS, D. D.

Born in Naples, New York, May 9, 1856.
Student in Genesee Wesleyan Seminary and Christian Biblical Institute.
Graduated from Antioch College, 1890.
President American Christian Convention, 1898-1906.
Secretary for the Department of Home Missions, 1906-1914.
In charge of the Bureau of Evangelism and Social Service, 1914-1919.
Died at Circleville, Ohio, August 31, 1919.

IN MEMORIAM

The Executive Board of The American Christian Convention, in session in Dayton, Ohio, October 29, 1919, appointed a committee of which Rev. W. G. Sargent was chairman to draft resolutions in memory of the late Rev. Doctor O. W. Powers. The report, addressed to the wife and daughter, is as follows:

The passing of Dr. O. W. Powers, leaving as it does, the denomination to which he belonged and the church of which he was a part so much poorer for his going, moves the Executive Board of The American Christian Convention, in its desire to express its deep sense of the personal worth of our deceased brother, and its wish to manifest heartfelt sympathy with those to whom his loss is most immediate, to send forth this resolution, expressive of our consciousness of personal loss and our sympathy with you in your great sorrow.

In the fellowship of private life we knew our brother as courteous, kindly, forgiving, self-forgetful, ever ready to give help when appealed to or the opportunity offered, loyal in his friendships and consistently faithful in his appointed work.

Looking back over the story of Dr. Powers' association with the church, we can realize anew how great his contribution was to the life and work, not alone of the Christian denomination, but the church at large. His native intelligence, reinforced by life-long study, his devotion, reaching to the point of glad and long-continued sacrifice, fitted him for the place of leadership he so pre-eminently occupied in the church. Like his Master, whom he served so well, he was moved with one great impulse—to do the will of his Father, and in the doing he counted all things else loss that he might serve well. For the many years during which his place was at the forefront of our denominational life, his leadership was qualified to inspire heroic sacrifice in attaining great ends.

Great as our sense of deprivation is, we cannot but feel that, passing from us as he did, even as he set his hand to a new and most difficult task, his splendid courage and his unconquerable faith must add new incentive to that already rendered to our whole denominational life.

Will you kindly accept from the Executive Board of The American Christian Convention these expressions of regard and sympathy and our assurance of belief his example will incite us all to a deeper loyalty to the cause of the Friend in whose presence he abides with deep joy, and with whom he labors now, as he has ever done, in loving service.

Done on behalf of the Executive Board of The American Christian Convention.

COMMITTEE.

HONOR ROLL

"These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them and greeted them from afar, and having confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth."

FORWARD TOGETHER

By Mrs. Athella Howsare

President of the Woman's Board for Home Missions

The belated American Christian Convention, April 29 to May 5, brought to the organized woman's work as well as to all other lines of our church activity, a quickened zeal, a new inspiration, a larger and more far-reaching faith.

Courage is contagious, and when the strong hearts from all sections of our Zion came together at Conneaut, our standards had to be carried Forward and new, advanced goals set. A beautiful spirit of harmony and helpfulness prevailed throughout that wonderful Convention and the delegates carried home with them a consciousness that the work we have pledged ourselves to, is no small task and its accomplishment will require the best there is in the BEST of us, and strengthening of our weakest lines not to their best nor to ours but to God's Best through us.

It was a wonderful inspiration to have the missionaries through whom we work, face us and tell us of the task, its needs and its promises. It was a joy to buy a new "Gospel Ford" to minister to the needs of Western Washington after Rev. W. R. Caldwall told us how much faster he could get to the people and how many more he could touch in the same time through the service of such an agency. And seeing the needs in Washington and other sections of the West, an increased appropriation to this work was the only logical result.

Through Rev. W. H. Hendershot, we saw Franklinton Christian College from another viewpoint, and agreed to do a larger and a better work there. Our missionaries, Rev. and Mrs. McCord, as always, made us thankful for the privilege of serving in beautiful Japan, and our new missionaries, Rev. and Mrs. W. Q. McKnight, were a benediction by their very presence. A great impetus to our woman's work came through the presence and the persuasive eloquence of our brother, J. O. Atkinson, of Elon College. It was easy to understand how our women of the South were doing such marvelous things after catching his spirit and his rallying call. Space forbids even the mention of the many other contributing agents that released to the workers there to be carried home by them and made effective in the churches, the spirit of the Forward Movement, Christ's call to us of the Christian Church to do something now, worthy of Christian discipleship. This splendid gathering resulted in the recasting of our goals for the quadrennium, which now read as follows:—

1. Devotion—Six hundred New Pledged Intercessors.
2. Evangelism—
   (a) A Woman's Mission Board thoroughly organized in every conference.
   (b) One Hundred New Missionary Societies.
   (c) Two Thousand New Members in the Societies.
3. Religious Education—
   (a) One Hundred and Fifty Missionary Societies studying the Woman's Home and Foreign Mission Study books each year.
   (b) Six hundred Increased Christian Missionary Subscriptions.
4. Missions—One Hundred Thousand Dollars for the Quadrennium.
5. Benevolence—Teach Tithing, Stewardship, Individuals, and Churches to support missionaries and missions.

GOALS FOR 1919—1920

Foreign Board—$15,000

We will put $10,000 of this amount into Japan for the work of the Sendai field; the Japanese pastors and Bible women, whose salaries have all been increased; the Orphanage, etc.; the salary of Mr. and Mrs. McCord, which we are allowed to provide, whether they are in Japan or America; and the necessary administration expenses at home. We propose to put $1,000 into Porto Rico and expect our young people to provide this amount. With a new missionary family living in Santa Isabel, the work there will be largely increased. Our building and equipment fund aim is $4,000. We expect our young people to give $1,000 of this to complete their chapel and furnish other equipment for the Santa Isabel field.

Home Board—$10,000

$2,000 of this amount is expected as the Home half of the Thank-offering, to be used for better equipment, especially at Franklinton.

$4,000 is needed for our Frontier work. The work in Washington is going splendidly. Brother Loucks writes encouragingly. Brother Caldwell says that the new Gospel Ford is carrying the loggers' sky pilot farther and faster and to more places.

$2,000 must be secured for the normal expense of the work at Franklinton, outside of the equipment fund coming through the Thank-offering, and besides an additional

$1,000, the Goal set for our Young People. This will be used in the continued support of Mrs. Mangrum and other teachers in Franklinton. The final

$1,000 of our ten-thousand goal will be used for administration and promotion. This means that provision will be made for the firmer establishment of our work through new organizations in the weaker and neglected sections, where perhaps our general workers or organizers have not been invited to go hitherto, because of the expense entailed. We must enlist new workers and put them in training for the rapidly developing fields. Truly the harvest is great and the laborers few.

Toward the accomplishment of these goals there was adopted and is being worked out the following:—

PROGRAM OF ACTIVITY FOR LOCAL MISSIONARY SOCIETIES

The program logically falls into five periods and the primary activities suggested for each period are as follows:

Period I. Devotion.—January, February.

Objectives: To deepen the spiritual life of our members and to increase the number of pledged intercessors.

January.—Observe the Week of Prayer for Missions. Suggestive programs will be printed in our denominational publications.

February.—Secure signers of the Intercessor's Covenant, which can be secured from the Literature Department of our Woman's Boards.

Distribute some leaflet on Intercession.

Period II. Extension.—March, April, May.

Objective: Organization of new societies. Winning of new members.

March.—Careful planning of the campaign in both local societies and conferences.

April.—The definite, enthusiastic effort to increase our societies and membership in both the Women's and Young People's Departments.

May.—Reception Service for new members.

Period III. Cradle Roll.—June.

This month is devoted to the interests of our Cradle Roll Department. Cradle Roll rallies should be held and special effort made to secure new babies and new Rolls. Conference superintendents should push the work during this month especially.

Period IV. Education.—July, August, September.

Objectives: To emphasize the importance of missionary literature. To secure new subscribers to The Christian Missionary.

July.—Each local society should take an offering for the Literature Department of our Woman's Boards, averaging five cents a member. Emphasize the work of the department and distribute the new leaflets.

August.—Give special attention to increasing the number of subscribers to The Christian Missionary and endeavor to have every woman read at least one missionary book during this vacation month.

September.—Continue the canvass for new subscribers. Order the new mission study books and plan the programs for the year. The Woman's Boards prepare suggestive programs on the current books. This is the month when each society is asked to contribute two dollars to the Ellen G. Gustin Memorial Fund.

Period V. Benevolence.—October, November, December.

Objective: To promote a quickened consciousness of our stewardship and God's ownership. To inaugurate plans which shall result in increased gifts during the year.

October.—Careful, prayerful preparation for the Thank-offering. Set a definite goal for the offering and set it high—so high that you will be driven to our Father for its realization.

November.—Thank-offering Month.

This meeting should be the crowning one of the year, both in attendance and spiritual influence. Make it an offering not a collection, and seek the co-operation and participation of every member.

December.—As we commemorate the coming of the world's greatest gift, let us thoughtfully ask ourselves, "How do my gifts look to Him? My gifts of time, of influence, of money." As societies and individuals in these closing hours of the year let us pledge a more completely devoted giving of our all to the Lord Jesus Christ.

We must go "over the top" along all the lines suggested in the budget given above. To accomplish this we must develop every one of the five points of the Forward Movement Program.

The Woman's Board of the Eastern Virginia Conference has undertaken the support of Miss Iola Hedgepeth as a missionary to neglected mountain districts. From a report of this conference we read, "It was decided to have a 'Home Mission Special' equal in amount to the 'Foreign Mission Special,' and that this 'Special' be for the support of our Washington, D. C., pastor."

The goal of the Young People was fixed at $1,000.00 and this is to be used in prosecuting our mountain work as the Mission Board may direct. . . . . The women of Eastern Virginia are doing great things for the kingdom. . . . . The conference's motto was, "Anywhere, provided it be forward."

CONFERENCE DEPARTMENT

[NOTICE:—In the Conference Department, where the church, or the Sunday-school, or Christian Endeavor Society is not reported by the Conference Secretary, we have taken it as evidence that there were none to report, except in such cases where we were fully assured that only temporary inactivity existed. When Sunday-schools and Christian Endeavor Societies were not reported as making offerings to these departments, it was taken for granted that no offering had been made. The four offerings—Convention, Home Missions, Foreign Missions, and Education—are reported from the Convention records, except those reported by Conference Secretaries.]

NEW ENGLAND CHRISTIAN CONVENTION

(Reported by Secretary English)

Was organized at Lynn, Mass., 1845. Hervey Sullings was the first president and Joseph Blackmar and E. Chadwick the first secretaries. It has been continuously in existence since the date of its organization. In 1855 a Sunday-school Association was organized as a supplemental organization. It also has had, and has now, missionary and educational societies and exists quite largely through these benevolent organizations.

Christian Endeavor Societies, 2; Membership, 86. Total contributions reported, $6,120.69. Conference offering to A. C. C., $15.00.

EXPLANATORY—None of the churches really use the budget system. Neola, Pleasant Hill, and Towanda have Sunday-school all the year, Cassoday only a spring term; cause, Brother Cameron has been away all summer. The Sunday-schools and Endeavorers bear their own expenses. The mission offerings reported are birthday offerings and are reported nowhere else except when summarizing year's work. Ladies' Aid combined with church report. Have no record as to how many ministers responded to the special calls sent them outside the Conference calls. The Southern Kansas Conference had no dedications, re-dedications, ordinations, nor bodily deaths of either ministers or churches during past year. Towanda built a parsonage, cost $3,500.00. Pleasant Hill and Neola are talking parsonage. The churches bore the greater part of expenses of the ministerial delegates to Conneaut Convention, as follows: Matfield Green, $13.00; Neola, $10.74; Pleasant Hill, $20.00; Towanda, $6.45; total, $50.19. This has been included in the "all other purposes" account.

SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN CONVENTION

(Reported by President Staley)

Officers—Rev. W. W. Staley, Suffolk, Va.—President.
Rev. J. O. Atkinson, Elon College, N. C.—Vice-President.
Rev. I. W. Johnson, Suffolk, Va.—Secretary.
Rev. J. F. Morgan, Berkley, Norfolk, Va.—Assistant Secretary.
Rev. W. C. Wicker, Elon College, N. C.—Treasurer.

Territory—The Southern Christian Convention is composed of the following conferences: Virginia Valley Central Conference, A. W. Andes, Harrisonburg, Va., Secretary; Georgia and Alabama Conference, J. F. Hill, Jr., Phoenix, Ala., secretary; Alabama Conference, E. M. Carter, Wadley, Ala., secretary; Eastern Virginia Conference, Rev. I. W. Johnson, Suffolk, Va., Secretary; North Carolina Christian Conference, W. A. Harper, Elon College, N. C., Secretary.

In accordance with the Convention recommendations, all the conferences have organized local Conference Missionary Associations. These associations have been officered in the manner of the Convention Association. By the plans thus inaugurated the funds for home missions will be greatly increased. As regards foreign missions, there is a steady growth of interest. A special call was made upon the conferences for missions at the late session of the Convention.

The Convention met in May, 1918, at Franklin, Va. Meets again in 1920, in Raleigh, N. C.

The most recent forward step of the Convention is the election of Dr. J. O. Atkinson Field Secretary of Missions in the Convention. One hundred twenty-five thousand dollars have already been subscribed and more than $40,000.00 paid in for this fund, to be divided equally for Home and Foreign Missions.

This Convention also supports the Christian Orphanage, located at Elon College, N. C.; The Christian Sun, and Elon College, all owned by the Convention.

AN INDEPENDENT CHURCH CO-OPERATING WITH THE AMERICAN CHRISTIAN CONVENTION

Peoples Christian Church, Milford, N. J.

This church has, for the past several years, been co-operating with The American Christian Convention, and has won for itself a degree of loyalty and liberality that is commendable indeed. The pastor is Rev. B. F. Hoagland, Upper Black Eddy, Pa. The clerk is Spencer B. Garrett, Milford, N. J. During the past year it has made contributions as follows:

American Christian Convention	$13.00
Education	13.00
Home Missions	15.00
War Work Commission	10.00

It has a Sunday-school, with graded classes, and a Home Department, and uses The Christian Publishing Association literature exclusively. The superintendent is Charles G. Melick, Milford, N. J.

MINISTERIAL DIRECTORY

A WORD ABOUT THIS MINISTERIAL LIST

Everything was done that care, patience, and perseverence could do to have the ministerial list correct. There are a few names on the list that were not reported to the office of the editor by conference officers. These few are given without naming conference membership. The absence of a name from the ministerial list means that it was not in the ministerial report given by the Conference Secretary.

FIFTY SETS TO KOREA

Gentlemen: Some years ago I was in Amereia and bought from you a Communion Set with the Pointed Top Glass Cups. I have used it for seven years with the greatest satisfaction. I have carried it all over the country—by cowback, horsebaek, manback, boat, cart, and train, and in all that time I have broken about ten of the cupts out of 280. I have served Communion with it hundreds of times. I write, first, because I want to get 20 more of the cups, and, second, beeause I want to put you in the way of selling a lot more of the sets in Korea. Twice in the last seven years the General Assembly of Korea have met in my church and we have used the set, and it has created a great deal of diseussion.

Yours truly,
REV. CHARLES ALLEN CLARK,
Seoul, Korea, Japan.

PASTOR'S OUTFIT

Dear Sirs: We are delighted to acknowledge the receipt of the PASTOR'S OUTFIT. It is all and everything we could have asked or expected. We wonder now how we evr managed without one. The ladies are very proud of their purchase and have asked me to write and thank you for your kindness concerning postage, etc. Please rest assured that we are WELL SATISFIED CUSTOMERS and shall always be glad to recommend your Company whenever we have an opportunity to do so.

Cordially yours,
